Cees Ranked High To Capture Wins

Tartars against the field when the Torrance High thinclads enter the ninth annual El Monte track and field relays tomorrow at 2 p.m. on the El Monte Lions' cinderpath.

Although Inglewood and Long Beach are highly touted to steal away the blue ribbons from El Monte, who took home first place honors last year, the Tartars have a few red-hot individual prospects who should come through in fine style.

High on the list of [illegible] to wear the Red and White out that-a-way tomorrow will be Don Forth, competing in the class Cee pole vault and shot put.

Varsity entrants who will be out to crack the tape and capture some firsts will be Ted Marcoux, Lee Mortenson, Bill Crawford and Doug Folger in the 4-man mile relay. Each will have to turn in a 52.5s lap if they plan to match the present relays record of 3m. 31.1s.

Joe Lafferty, Don Kastin, Ray Kelley and probably Wayne Michels will gallop a furlong a piece in the 4-man half-mile relay.

Varsity shot-putters who compete as a team with the best of their tries combined to determine the first place, will be Warren Bennett, Bob Carroll and Don Mayers. They'll have to crack a 118 ft. 2 in. mark to knock standing records or each nudge the 50-foot mark.

Listed to travel to the relays by Coach Vern Wolfe are the following:
