GRUBB'S MARKET

★

DEFENSE BEGINS IN THE KITCHEN

There's a big job ahead and everyone must pull his own weight. Defense is guns and materials backed up by a stalwart people. That's why robust, nourishing meals for your family are very important. If you're determined that they get the right things to eat, remember to include at least one meat dish every day in their diet. Vitamin, mineral and protein are in abundance in good meats. Grubb's carry good meats.

Don't Dump Waste Paper in Prado Park

Altho the Torrance squadron of the Sons of the American Legion closed their paper drive last Sunday, some residents are continuing to dump waste paper in El Prado park at Cravens ave. The Sons obtained permission of the council to use that part of the park only three days for their paper drive and now are "not in the market" for any more contributions.

Waste paper should not be dumped there any more but residents may call the Salvation Army, Volunteers of America or any other charitable organization to report they have a quantity of material. The net returns from the Sons' paper drive amounted to $28.60, half of which was invested in defense bonds and the remaining half divided between the Torrance branch of the Red Cross and the American Legion's fund to rebuild the clubhouse on Carson st.

CLUBWOMEN ARE BRIDGE HOSTESSES

Mmes. G. J. Derouin and Joe H. Moore will be hostesses at a dessert bridge to be held at Torrance Woman's Clubhouse tomorrow afternoon, Friday, Feb. 20, beginning at 1 o'clock.

Miss Griffith, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in eggshell satin, designed with a heart-shaped neckline and long sleeves. Her fingertip veil, caught with orange blossoms, was draped from a halo coronet, and she carried a bride's bouquet of white orchids and gardenias.

Miss Bylye Jane Haines, as maid of honor, was gowned in a bouffant model of pale pink organza and carried orchids and pink carnations. The ensembles of the bridesmaids, Misses Maxine Baker, Ann Alfred, Betty Lee Templeman, June Reynolds, Edith Kinsey and Jean Boltz, duplicated Miss Haines'. Their flowers were cascade arrangements of pale pink carnations with orchids. Little Norma Shimmick, in pink taffeta, was flower girl.

Mel Lawson of Los Angeles served as the bridegroom's best man, and ushers were Carl Lucht, Martin Bowman, Bob Haines, Ben Griffith, Bill Breding and Roy Becker, all of Los Angeles. Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at 1004 Echo Park ave. Preceding the ceremony, Rev. Victor Hourez of Long Beach, an uncle of the bride, sang. He was accompanied by Mrs. Esther Fricke Stewart of Los Angeles.

The bride is a graduate of Torrance high school, class of Winter '41.
