This declaration of Paul to the Galatians will be the Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Mortals and Immortals" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston: "Thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ."

According to Matthew's Gospel "great multitudes came unto" Jesus, "having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet: and he healed them." Mark relates, "And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him. . . . And looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened. And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures:" "Sight, hearing, all the spiritual senses of man, are eternal. They cannot be lost. Their reality and immortality are in Spirit and understanding, not in matter,—hence their permanence."
