Reflections

By J. HUGH SHERFEY, JR.

A DIVIDEND IS WAITING

Happiness is a dividend. Two of my friends have the greatest fun at a picnic, away from everyone. Another friend has the most fun reading Detective stories. A father chooses to have fun with his boys; they go for a hike, investigate a blade of grass, a dainty flower, rock, stream tumbling to the sea. Grandma Moses paints scenes for Christmas. A snowy haired lady bakes cookies and two loaves of bread; her greatest happiness is in giving them away. Fun has so many facets that the whole spectrum is always present; Helen Keller is supremely happy when she can inspire another blind person to be self-sufficient.

Seek fun as a dividend to living.

P.S. Our greatest happiness is to claim your approval, your confidence.
