Seaside

Coming home today to greet brother Timmy is the new member of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hall in the Ranchos. Little Eileen Ann weighed in at a little over seven pounds November 2.

Missing this week up on the hill are Trudy and Thor Firing. They have journeyed to New Jersey where Capt. Firing is on active duty with the Army.

Back this week from her Canadian vacation is Mrs. Sidney J. Rufner. Since they have leased their home in Hollywood Riviera, they will live in Hermosa Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bennett, Hollywood Riviera, entertained at a dinner party Sunday night for Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Gabert, following a meeting of the Hollywood Riviera Women's Study Group. Mr. Gabert, well known for his musical activities here and abroad, was the guest speaker at the preceding meeting.

Lots of reminders this week, but tie a string around your finger to remember the Los Cancioneros Spanish dinner November 14 at El Retiro Park. Singing too, no less.

* * *

Regular meeting of Las Vecinas was held Wednesday afternoon, November 15, at the Hollywood Riviera Club. Speakers were Norman Jacoby and Edward H. Gibbons, who spoke on "Communist Activities and Propaganda." A jewelry fashion show will be held, too.

* * *

Joining with the Torrance organization of Sigma Tau Delta, the Seaside Ranchos girls had a very enjoyable evening last week. Refreshments were served and an evening of good fellowship made a "repeat" of the occasion a must.

* * *

The blood bank that is to be in Torrance December 1 is replacing the blood given to those boys in Korea who are fighting for us. Let's give, if possible.

* * *

The special meeting of Las Vecinas is November 27. ALL members are requested to be there.

Soroptimists At Meetings

Mrs. Bernice Snow, 2600 Eshelman avenue, Lomita, will be hostess for the Soroptimists' November 29 dinner meeting. Mrs. Elsa J. Morris and Mrs. Alladean Dossi will be co-hostesses.
