NORTH TORRANCE TATTLER

Seems the Easter bunny left a lot of eggs up and down our streets. Bright colored eggs and new bonnets seem to be the order of the day. One of the prettiest seen by this reporter was worn by Mrs. William Sale, a picture hat as only Peggy could wear it! Mrs. Kenneth Tuttle looked very lovely in a gray crepe with matching hat. The small fry flocked to various churches in straw hats with velvet ribbons and little suits of browns and blues.

Michael McBee reached his sixth year this week. A dozen small playmates gathered around his birthday cake and watched as he blew out the candles. The group played the popular party games and heartily enjoyed the ice cream and cake. The Easter theme was carried out in table decorations.

* * *

The Community Church gave a skating party at Gardena Roller Rink Monday. Some 35 turned out for a grand time.

* * *

The Tawasi (friends) group of Betty Johnson's Campfire Girls were entertained at the home of Karen Gaw, 2015 West 174th, for an Easter party this week. The girls colored eggs and really enjoyed themselves. This group meets every Monday evening at West Torrance Elementary School.

Meet some of your aggressive neighbors: Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hansch, 17202 Elgar. Bill and his wife formerly lived in South Gate but were one of the first to move into Crenshaw Crest. Two small daughters, Susan Gail, 1 year, and Terry Lynn, 3 years, have been added. Mr. Hansch, an employee of Firestone Rubber Co., and a student of meteorology at El Camino College, informs this reporter that beginning April 7 he is opening a pony ride opposite the swimming pool at the college. Bill will call his new enterprise Alondra Park Pony Ride and until a future date will be operating only on weekends. All equipment is new, with five well-trained ponies. So bring your potential Hoppy and let him ride to his heart's content.

Charlene Dyer, 17030 Crenshaw, was christened by Rev. Hand at the Community Church in Costa Mesa Easter Sunday. Godparents were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Collins. A dinner followed at the home of William Nickell, 2210 Broadway, Costa Mesa. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Collins and daughter Sally, and Mr. and Mrs. John Lush, both of Torrance.

Our very popular Sandy Gulbranson is a busy girl these days. Monday Sandy and her opponents appeared on Peter Potters' television show—a thrilling experience with actual make-up applied by professionals. Candy did herself proud with all the poise and self-confidence of a seasoned trouper. Your reporter's boys teen-age bowlers added to our candidate's fund with a very successful pie sale last Saturday. Those who so readily volunteered were Melvin Ballinger, Jimmy Babb, Jerry Allison, Bob Kelly and Bob Bowen. Let's not let Sandy fail. Contribute if you can.

Scout Leader Evelyn Holechek and her girls planned and served a luncheon for Linda Jackson's troop at Verburg Dairy on March 20. Twenty-two girls had a grand time playing charades and displaying their many talents.

* * *

Lou Simons' Cub Scouts packed a lunch and hiked through Griffith Park to the Observatory last Saturday. Leaving home at 7 a.m. made a long day even for these energetic little boys. Those adults accompanying the group included Messrs. Mitchell, Harris and Bronson.

* * *

A dance to be held at the Mc-Masters Hall on Saturday, April 21, was announced this week by Dave Dyer, ways and means chairman of the North Torrance Civic Improvement Association.

* * *

Easter brought Mrs. Eve Pelligreni of Millbrea and Mrs. Ruth Hogan of San Jose, sister and sister-in-law of Mrs. Winona Muck of 17202 Falda, on a very delightful visit to our community.

* * *

Well, podner, it was a tough fight, but the Rustlers lost, so the old feedbag is on at the expense of the Rustlers. Mrs. Audrey Richter, of 17224 Crenshaw boulevard, superintendent of the Community Church, announces a party for Saturday, April 7, at 10 a.m. at her home, for the winners. Let's round 'em all up for the payoff.

Girl Scout Troop 1293 under the leadership of Winona Muck and Carol Sidley started the first lap of a 100-mile hike this week in the Palos Verdes hills. Armed with a nosebag lunch, these girls tramped around eight miles. Mrs. Muck was accompanied by her niece, Myrtle Gwaltney, who recently moved to Gardena from Phoenix. Troop 1293 attended the Jamboree at the Shrine Auditorium, where many celebrities entertained. Among those causing much furor among the girls was Dinah Shore, who told the crowd she was a Senior Scout with years of Scouting to her credit.
