Sewer Discussions Top Group Meeting

By MARY and JACK WEBB

Spring brings many new and budding things, and among them this year you'll find new officers for the Riviera Homeowners Assn. Up to the president's chair steps W. A. Garrabrandt, 305 Camino de las Colinas. Ross Dorsett, 151 Via los Altos, assumes the vice-prexyship, while L. G. Kitsch grabs a tight hold on the pursestrings as new treasurer. Mrs. Stan Sutherin, 107 Calle de Andalucia, is again recording secretary. The executive board will be composed of ex-president Don Whitney, Bob Byrns, Will Zens, and John Kinsey. The new officers got right down to earth for the first meeting; the topic of hot discussion was sewers, as earthy a subject as anyone would wish.

Three more new members have come into the fold at the Sportsmen's Club. John Walti, 376 Paseo de Gracia, membership chairman, reports the following fellow citizens are now Sportsmen in fact as well as mind; George Alrich, 516 Paseo de las Estrellas; Larry Connor, 244 Via Buena Ventura; and Rex Hayes, 421 Calle de Aragon. Again, Walti urges all those Riviera males who have a mind to be a sporty sportsman to call him at FRontier 5-1282; he'll answer questions and point the way to the next meeting to any interested caller.

Lower Riviera's Cub Pack 656 held its "Blue and Gold" banquet at El Retiro park on March 6, at which presentation of awards were made. Following the dinner, the program was opened by Phil Shaw, who introduced Mrs. Raymond Hole, president of the sponsoring Riviera PTA. Mrs. Hole presented the pack with $10 to help swell the pack coffers.

Steven Willett, 11, one of the first boys to go all through cubbing in Hollywood Riviera, and one of the first in Cub Pack 656, gave a brief resume of the founding of Pack 656 and its history. Steven is now a member of Boy Scout Trop 718.

Awards presented to Cubs included the bobcat pin to Bill Reed, the bear badge to Alan Sims, the lion badge to Donald Houser, and a den chief warrant and shoulder cord to Henry Miller Jr. Silver arrows were awarded to Alan Walti, Bill Willett, Bobby Yoho, Brian Griff, and Johnny Morgan. Gold arrow award was given to George Cobabe and Johnny Morgan. Donald Hauser, received a denner stripe while Mike Andrews was awarded an assistant denner strip. One year pins were given to Mike Zcarske, John Hodges, Bruce Mapes, and Mike Andrews.

A skit on the early days of cubbing and scouting was written by Mrs. Donald Hauser, 169 Paseo de las Delicias, and enacted by the mothers and fathers of Pack 656 members. Mrs. Hauser and Mrs. John Kinsey portrayed mothers interested in scouting during the early days of the scouting movement. Willard Key played a Scoutmaster of the 1890's, the time in which the skit was placed. Another scouter of the period was played by Carlton Paul and the following men were scouts of that long ago and far-away troop: Donald Hauser, Ray Griff, Carl Rogers, and Cliff Fuller.

Pack 656 holds its monthly meeting on the first Friday of each month at El Retiro Park.

Jim Byrd, 224 Calle de Anda-Florida recently; he was navilucia, helped ferry a plane to gator in the crew. While in that state he visited for a week with former residents of the Riviera, Mr. and Mrs. Sal Xifo and their three children. You may recall we reported their leaving here a few months ago, when Xifo was transferred to his new position in that state. Jim flew back to this coast via a transport plane.

The Riviera PTA is readying for a giant rummage sale scheduled for March 25 and 26. Mrs. Otto Willett, chairman of the PTA ways and means committee, reports that the need right now is for rummage for the sale. Since depots and stations are not yet set up, any article to be contributed to the sale may be left at Mrs. Willett's house, 221 Via los Altos. As soon as stations are designated, they will be announced, so that rummage may be left at more convenient addresses.
