Carson Decorating Contest Under Way

By GWEN BARKAN
FA 8-0359

Well, Thanksgiving's over and we'll all draw a deep breath and make ready for Santa Claus. Along this line we find all the local organizations planning parties, wrapping gifts, and preparing to help the needy of the neighborhood. The Carson Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring another decorating contest and here and there displays are beginning to brighten the scene. The one up at the Ben Cluff Dairy crosses the street, and reminds us all to hurry and finish our wrapping.

The Cub Scouts of Wilmington Pack 230-C is recovering from the outing they enjoyed at Fort MacArthur last month and is making plans for a fine Christmas party. The Cubs and their parents and Den Mothers as well as committee members enjoyed a tour of the fort in San Pedro and ate a meal in the mess hall. Chances are that the thrill of wearing a uniform and eating in a mess hall will wear off as the boys grow older! The Cubs are sponsored by the Carson St. PTA.

A fishing outing to Rio Hardy, Mexico, turned out to be more fun than anything else for three Carson families this week-end, but according to Mrs. Roy Carter, they all had a wonderful time, sleeping under the stars and roughing it. Making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carter and boys Ted, Timmy, and Tommy; Mr. and Mrs. Stuart and sons David, Jimmy, and Frankie, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Hummel and Freelin.

Who is ever as busy as a PTA president? Well, I don't know, but I was very much surprised to find Mrs. C. Wittenburg, president of Carson St. PTA, at home yesterday afternoon. She attended the meeting of the Harbor Area Welfare meeting last Wednesday in the company of Mrs. E. W. Wallace, principal of Carson St. School and Mrs. L. L. Atwood. It was a very informative meeting as different Community Chest agencies were featured, each telling their function to the Harbor area. Questions were answered, and a fine lunch was served.

Another trip which local PTA presidents and members shared last week was to Garfield High School in Los Angeles, where the 10th District meeting was held. Driving over with Mrs. MacMillan of 186th St. School, were Mrs. L. Martinez, president of Dolores St.; Mrs. R. Snyder, Catskill; Mrs. Rush, representing Del Amo; and Mrs. Williamson and Mrs. C. Wittenburg, president, of Carson St.

We're always pleased to report the birth of a new baby, and this week it's a girl for Mr. and Mrs. Dave DiPrete, 516 W. 214th St. Baby Linda Joyce will bring to four the number of potential "Miss Americas" in the household as she joins sisters Jeanette 9, Diane 8, and Betty 3. She already has a good start in life as she weighed more than 9 pounds at birth!

The "Brownies" are getting started and promise to be a very thriving organization before long, according to Mrs. Thelma Luten, 21312 Archibald, who will be leader for one group. Last Wednesday about 50 girls and their mothers met at Carson St. School to choose leaders and co-leaders and to form the girls into working units. They were divided into three groups with the following mothers as leaders: Mrs. Lorraine Stevens, leader and co-leader Joyce Bates; second group leader, Mrs. Agnes Boboril, co-leader Mrs. Julia Morrow; third group leader, Mrs. Thelma Luten, co-leader Mrs. Bonnie Tremblay. The groups will meet with their leaders once a week.

Inasmuch as the Brownies are just getting started in the Carson St. District, leaders and mothers were very glad of the chance offered them Monday morning as they met with Mrs. Lillian Willard, district leader, at the home of Mrs. Charles Linn, 114 E. 213th St. Mrs. Willard answered many questions and gave much practical advice. Those attending the meeting were Mmes. Lorra Lorraine Stevens, Agnes Voboril, Joyce Bates, Joy Greene, Carolin Salveter, Yori Morioka, Therese Lehman, Thelma Luter, Julia Morrow, Bonnie Tremblay, and Mrs. Linn. This is also sponsored by the Carson St. PTA.

The youngsters at Carson St. School have been having life more interesting these last few weeks with outside trips that explain the reality of what they are studying. For instance, the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades are being encouraged to use the public library. They are taken to the Keystone Public library for one hour every two weeks at which time they may check out books or just read and become familiar with the procedure. The children in rooms 15 and 22, under the guidance of Mrs. Justice and Mrs. Radcliffe visited the "Pony Express" Museum and those of room 14 will visit the Los Angeles County museum with Mrs. Helen Smith. However, the children aren't only seeing life in museums and libraries, because it was a real thrill for 76 of the youngsters to attend the "Western Livestock Show," 2120 Southeastern Ave., on Dec. 2, and the animals there were certainly alive!

The many friends of Mrs. Jack Spence and sons Danny and Tommy, will be sorry to hear that they are leaving us to join Mr. Spence in South Dakota. In a way, it'll be like pioneering as they go to the town of Pickstown, So. Dak., which is a construction town and very small. Mrs. Spence is well known for her PTA work and efforts on behalf of the community. She is resigning as welfare chairman for Carson St. PTA and will be a hard person to replace. We do hate to see them go, but all wish for the whole family nothing but the greatest good. If you'd like her address for your Christmas list, it's P.O. Box 676, Pickstown, So. Dak.
