Seasiders Turn Out For Cancer Benefit

By BERNADETTE WEBER
Frontier 5-2465

The big news of the moment seems to be the Cancer Dance. Was glad to see so many from this area present at the Riviera Club Saturday; the cause was surely a worthy one.

The ever-popular, well-known actor Frank Jenks was the program chairman and master of ceremonies for the show. His wry grin and dry humor makes him just about tops with everyone. He has just finished working in a picture with Danny Thomas, and will shortly do a television show with Bud Abbott and Lou Costello. Our thanks to him and all the people who donated their time and talent to making the dance a success.

The musical program consisted of the Deaconaires, of the Torrance Barber Shop Quartet, who sang three numbers.

Little Joe Richmond sang several numbers and received a tremendous ovation. He recently finished working with Betty Grable in a picture called "The Farmer Takes A Wife."

Clinton Clark, a dramatic baritone from the Hollywood Bowl, sang several excellent numbers.

Dick Tell, just back from Florida, sang with Bill Carnes' orchestra.

Los Cancioneros also did themselves up proud.

Pauline Doyle gave a pre-dance cocktail party to celebrate her husband's homecoming. He returned recently from a commercial fishing trip in Panama and Peruvian waters. Joining in the festivities Saturday were the Frank Hanovers, Eugene Millers, David Burfords, Paul Roettgers, Bud Mewborns, Pierce Venables, Wendell Higgbys, Russell Hopkins, Frederick Keeshan, Alex Hunts, Harvey Spelmans, Dorothy Haegel, Paul Robertshaw, and the Jon Alexanders.

Paul Roettger returned home hale and hearty from his trip to Chicago in time for the dance. He and friend Boas had spent eight days at the National Electrical Convention. They traveled by train.

Johnny Hahn, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hahn of 5847 Linda Dr., celebrated his fifth birthday amidst friends, greetings, punch, cake, and mint stick ice cream. Tots helping to celebrate were sister Cheryl, Leslie and Chrissie Palmeroy; Tommy and Cherry Stewart; Patty and Mary Beth Briggs; Patty, Freddy, and Loretta Klinger, and Billy and Pamela Btus.

On Memorial Day the John Kirbys and the Russell Hopkins motored to Yerba Linda, where the Hopkins family plans to move soon.

Last Friday the Girl Scouts held their annual Court of Awards with many parents in attendance. The meeting got under way with a flag salute. Pauline Underwood, field executive from Torrance gave a talk on the purpose of the badges. A proof of service in that field, Mrs. Ester Steele also gave a talk. Presentation of the year to thirteen new fly-ups preceded the awarding of other badges. Most of the Scouts received their first and second badges, and six girls received four and five. The list of award winners includes Sheila English, six; Carolyn Bledsoe, five; Betty Lou Mahon, four, Maren Courtney, four; Jean Woodward, four; and Carol White, four. Helen English, Girl Scout leader, informs me that they still are in need of Brownie and Intermediate group leaders and helpers.

Real Estate School Opens

A school to train men and women as real estate salesmen will be opened Monday at 10 a.m. by L. G. Kitsch and Roy A. Shaw, according to an announcement by the two local real estate men this week.

The three to five week course, depending upon the needs of the individual, will be conducted at 336 Vista del Mar in Hollywood Riviera. Registration for classes is now being accepted according to Kitsch and Shaw, who will be the instructors. Kitsch has been in the real estate business for the past six years in this area—four in Harbor City and two in Hollywood Riviera.

Classes will be conducted from 10 a.m. until noon, and in the evening from 7 to 9.

According to Kitsch, who has been a member of the Torrance-Lomita Realty Board since its inception, those completing the course will be ready to take the state real estate salesmen examination.

Classes will be held each Monday and Thursday.
