Local Air Force Man Assigned to Annapolis Post

Major John E. Hixson, Troop Commander at the Long Beach Air Force Base, who lives in Torrance, recently received orders assigning him as Physical Education Instructor at the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland, according to the Air Base Commander, Colonel Ronald F. Wilson.

Major Hixson, a veteran of the Second World War and the Korean conflict, flew 62 missions in P-40s and A-20s in the South Pacific during World War II. He served as Flt. Leader and later as Operations Officer at Hollandia Army Air Base from 1943 to 1944.

A member of the famous 452nd Light Bomb Wing in Korea, Major Hixson flew B-26s and later commanded the 6152nd Air Base Squadron at Taegu Air Base, Taegu, Korea and is holder of the Distinguished Service Medal with one cluster and the Air Medal with one cluster.

A native Californian, Major Hixson resides with his wife Jeanne and two children, John Jr. 8, and Maureen, 2, at 905 Patronella Ave. A graduate of Narbonne High School, he attended Long Beach City College, and after an interruption in his education by World War II he graduated from the University of Southern California, Class of '47, with a BS Degree in Education and Physical Education.

Nurseryman Enrolls In Refresher Course

Loring Bigelow, 24804 Pitcairn Way, of Newcoast Nursery was one of the 300 some nurserymen enrolled for the fifth annual California Nurserymen's Association's refresher course, June 10 and 11, given by the Ornamental Horticulture Department of California State Polytechnic College on its San Luis Obispo campus.

Highlights for the nurserymen were a barbecue in Poly Grove on the college campus Wednesday evening and presentation of awards at the conclusion of the final session. Certificates were awarded to registrants who completed their fourth year of attendance at the course.

Subjects considered in the course included merchandising, nursery design, labor problems, safety practices, advertising, accounting, phases of nursery production and economic trends in the nursery business.
