Scouts Sell Tickets To Annual Show

Harbor Junior college will hold Harbor District of the Los Angeles Area Council of Boy Scouts of America have held their annual big show ticket sales kick off for Scout-o-Scope.

The kick off was held at Shell Chemical company's Figueroa cafeteria. It was attended by 228 scouts and adult leaders representing the majority of scout units in the Harbor district.

Conducting the meeting were Al Moe of San Pedro district ticket sales chairman; Commander A. F. Benscheidt of Wilmington, district activities chairman; and R. J. Fleischman, field executive. Area ticket sales chairmen attending were John Stanton of Lomita, Paul Dehne of Torrance, and Louis Kanaster of San Pedro.

The kick off was held for the purpose of allowing Cubs, Scouts, and Explorers to be issued tickets for the big Scout-O-Scope which will take place in the Coliseum on June 2. This year's "Big Show" of Scouting will be directed by Walt Disney.
