Birthdays of Worthy Matron, Patron Noted by Local OES

The birthdays of Worthy Matron Dorothy Fylken and Worthy Patron Edward Morgan were celebrated last Thursday evening by the Torrance Eastern Star at the Masonic Temple.

Worthy matrons and worthy patrons of the district served as officers and those who filled the stations were: associate matron, Betty Meredith of Carnation chapter; associate patron, James Pressley of San Pedro Harbor chapter; treasurer, Fred Cain of Wilmington; chaplain, Oliver Hamilton of Lomita; marshal, Art Lillegraven of Playa Linda; Adah, Ella Franz of San Pedro; Ruth, Agnes Lillgraven; Esther, Elizabeth Coffman of Fuchsia chapter; Martha, Isabel Benham of Wilmington; Electa, Phyllis Hamilton of Lomita; Warder, Harry Bates of Point Firmin; sentinel, Don Meredith of Carnation.

Deputy Grand Matron Beatrice La France of Carnation chapter, was escorted and presented. Past matrons who served as deputies in 1953-54-55 were also escorted. They were: Edna Babcock, of Torrance; Frances Weston, of Wilmington, and Myrna Sams, of Playa Linda. A large group of past matrons and past patrons of Torrance and other chapters were also escorted.

James Pressly, acting associate patron, introduced many visitors.

Worthy matrons of the district presented the worthy matron with a small rocking chair and with appropriate verse each placed a spool of thread in the chair. The spools and the chair made the five colors of the star points. The honor guests were presented with identical birthday cakes and a monetary gift from the chapter officers. Presentation was made by Joyce Miller and Frank Thompson.

Since this was the last meeting in the old Masonic Temple, Marguerite Morgan, chairman, carried out a "moving" theme.

At the close of the meeting a quartet composed of Ray Lougee, Floyd Mead, Leonard Babcock and Frank Thompson sang appropriate words to the tune "This Old House." At the conclusion of the song the officers placed their badges in a "packing" box. The worthy matron and patron were "moved" in red wagons by Florence Viellenave and Alethea Smith.

A social hour followed in the banquet hall. Tables were arranged to show the way to the new Masonic Temple, with the main streets marked, and signs all leading to 2336 Cabrillo, the new Temple, in the form of a birthday cake. Nut cups and table decorations carried out the theme.
