Vacation Bible School to End Program Friday

The Vacation Bible School at Park View Lutheran Church will hold its closing program tomorrow evening at 7:30, which will tell the story of the life of Christ as the "Beautiful Saviour."

Awards will be presented at the conclusion. Following the program, those present will be invited to view the displays of the departments and share in the refreshments. Department heads for the school included Mrs. Edward Stockburger, Mrs. Russell McClenanen, Mrs. John Pergrin, and Mrs. Karl Oelschlager. Chairmen of the various committees serving were, Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Tiedemann, Mrs. Leroy Langeston, and Mrs. Ralph Tucker, Jr.

The annual Sunday School-Church picnic will convene at El Retiro Park in Hollywood Riviera at 12:30 p.m., Sunday, following the church service at 8:30 a.m. only and Sunday School at 9:30 a.m. only. Members of the Vacation Bible School this year will be attending this as their closing picnic.

Rev. Karl Oelschlager will conclude his sermon series on "God's Senior Citizens" with a message on "The Church Cares!"

Need Work Following Vacations

"The honeymoon is over" is a phrase often used to express a let-down feeling or a return to reality and chances are if you've just returned from your vacation to discover your yard and garden a bit on the overgrown side you may exclaim in exactly those words!

But all is not lost, cheers the California Asociation of Nurserymen, for with some pruning shears, your trusty lawn mower, water hose and some fertilizer you can tidy up and revitalize your grounds in short time.

With your pruning shears cut back plants that are setting seed and prune boysenberries, loganberries and raspberries, removing the canes that have borne fruit and triming the new vines onto the trellises. Do your last cutting back on chrysanthemums and stake them if you haven't already. Shasta daisies can be cut back now too. If you haven't already lifted up and divided Spring-blooming bulbs do so now. Petunias that are lanky can now be cut back a little too, so they will bloom again in September and October.

In the fertilizing department chrysanthemums (up to the time the buds show color) fuchsias and late blooming dahlias will appreciate a feeding now. Fast growing plants should be fertilized too.

Watering will probably be your most important garden job. Thoroughly water trees, shrubs, lawn and flowers. If August is a particularly hot month in your area a mulch around the roots of evergreen shrubs and over the lawn will protect roots from the sun and help keep moisture in the ground.

Once you've done the post-vacation pruning, fertilizing and watering you'll probably have your garden back in as healthy a state as when you left.

Baptist Church Victory Crusade To Open Sunday

Dr. Harry McCormick Lintz, widely acclaimed as "America's Prince of Evangelists," will open a Victory Crusade at the First Baptist Church, 2118 Carson St., Sunday evening and will continue with services at 7:30 each evening except Saturday through Sept. 9.

Rev. C. Miles Northrup, pastor of the sponsoring church, yesterday said he felt that Torrance was fortunate in being able to secure the ministry of Dr. Lintz as there are many demands for his time.

Dr. Lintz comes to Torrance highly recommended as an evangelist having spent 26 years in the Gospel ministry. He served nine years in two pastorates and 17 years in full time evangelistic work.

For nine years, he was associated with the Moody Bible Institute's extension department, being the youngest man on the staff.

Lintz was chosen by the Chicago Christian Business Men as their speaker at the Century of Progress Exposition in that city. He was also selected as main speaker at the Easter Sunrise Service in Chicago's massive Soldiers' Field, a service attended by more than 50,000 persons.

Underscored in each sermon Dr. Lintz delivers is the theme he strongly believes: that the greatest antidote for communism is the Gospel of Christ, lived out in actual daily practice.

Special music will be under the leadership of Rev. Nathan Bond.

LOCAL PASTOR TO REDLANDS FOR MEETING

Pastor Glenn L. Goffar of the Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1610 Acacia Ave., will attend a five-day biennial Ministerial Conference of Southern California churchmen at Cedar Falls camp near Redlands beginning Sunday, Aug. 26.

Termed by church officials as "a major conference designed to give Southland ministers new insights into significant church plans," the convention will draw more than 250 ministers and their families from Los Angeles, Santa Barbara and Ventura counties to hear outstanding church leaders.

Pastor Goffar with his family will participate in numerous discussions and panel sessions of the conference in addition to attending major lecture sessions. They will hear addresses on archaeology by Dr. Seigfried Horn, Washington, D. C., noted archaeological authority; a series of lectures and group discussions on "Mobilizing the Church," and will attend specialized group meetings on individual ministerial problems. Noted Southern California ministers will present lectures on such subjects as stewardship, prayer, divorce, and personal improvement.

Other sessions of the convention will be devoted to "The Wife's Relationship to the Minister's Work," in which wives of leading Adventist ministers will direct discussion groups.

"Our local church services will be greatly enhanced by this spiritual "sitting together," Pastor Goffar noted in commenting on the conference. "With the forces of evil at work today in a much larger measure than ever before, conferences of this sort are not only helpful they are also a necessity to the spiritual leadership of the church."
