El Camino Hair Stylists Cop Honors in Competition

Cosmetology students of El Camino College today hold four of the six annual awards made by the Southern California Assn., of Cosmetology Teachers.

Competing in Santa Monica on June 4, the El Camino students took first, second, fifth and sixth places, while recovering the coveted plaque awarded to the college winning the first place honors. This year marked the second in the six-year history of the presentation that El Camino has won the top awards. The plaque was previously won by El Camino in 1955.

Torrance Model

The hair-styling of Miss Nancy Slane, Redondo Beach, brought her first place honors. Featuring a convertible cut line, her hair style was modeled by Mrs. George Hession, Torrance. Miss Slane is in the junior division of the cosmetology department and recently won first place within that group at El Camino.

Senior honors in the intra-college competition in hair-styling were won by Frank Cruse, Manhattan Beach, who took second place in the Santa Monica styling event, which was open to all junior colleges in Southern California.

Cruse's style, "Wheel of Fortune", was modeled by Miss Wanda West, Inglewood.

Third and fourth place awards were won by students from Los Angeles Trade Technical and Riverside colleges.

With only four students entered, El Camino won as many places in the competition, which was attended by all four of the college cosmetology instructors, Mrs. Beulah Mezzanato, Mrs. Marguerite Robinson, Mrs. Margaret Erickson, and Mrs. Jessie Lewis.

People With Weak Hearts To Get Cards

The Los Angeles County Heart Assn. has announced the issuance of an identification card for persons having congenital or rhematic heart disease, to provide information to aid in the prevention of certain heart infections.

The card will be available to medical doctors for issue to persons with congenital or rheumatic heart disease as a reminder to the patient, and is notification to other physicians or dentists that such medical attention is required prior to certain types of surgery. Such patients if not given preventive medication may develop a heart infection known as "Bacterial Endocarditis," a very grave illness.

There are an estimated 50,000 persons in Los Angeles County afflicted with congenital or rheumatic heart disease. The issuance of such an identification card is a cooperative service to doctors of medicine and dentists for the protection of these patients.

The cards will bear the patient's name, state the type of heart disease present, and will also show the attending physician's name and telephone number.

STONE GETS PRIZE FOR DRAWING

Bud Stone, 1520 W. 203rd St., won first prize for his drawing in the "Repair Handbook" section of the fourth annual Technical Illustrators' management Association art exhibit at the California Museum of Science and Industry, Exposition Park, Los Angeles.

Over 100 different drawings covering 12 different sections are on exhibit in this special show which will run until July 14.

The drawings explain how to operate, service maintain and order parts for the multitude of complex equipment comprising our military defenses. The artists who are exhibiting their works are employed in the aeronautical, electronic, and missile industries.

The Museum is open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., admission free. The public is invited to visit the show and see the drawings.

'Four Poster' Playing At Long Beach Theatre

"The Four Poster," a comedy set entirely in the vantage point of a bedroom will conclude its run this week end at The Theatre, Long Beach.

It will be presented at 8:30 p.m., Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday at 2400 Magnolia Ave., Long Beach. With two people in the cast, it tells the story of two people through 35 years of marriage.

L. A. Teachers to Get Paid For Outside Activities

Additional pay for junior and senior high school teachers who participate in extra-curricular activities in the Los Angeles City School System has been approved by the City Board of Education, on recommendation of Superintendent of Schools Ellis A. Jarvis.

Under its terms teachers in the fields of drama, instrumental music, choral music, stage craft, journalism, year book, speech, and student government will receive additional pay for services rendered over and above their regular full time teaching day. The plan will cost $148,777 annually.

Assignments Told

Each junior high school in the system will be eligible for four such assignments in any of the eight fields. Senior high schools will be eligible for assignments in all eight fields.

Each teacher assigned at the discretion of the principle will receive a maximum of 40 hours pay each semester to $5 a hour or $200 for the 40 hour period.

"A survey conducted by the personnel division last spring has shown that teachers in these subject fields are required, by the nature of their assignments, to give considerable time to the performance of their jobs beyond the period generally regarded as the regular teaching ray," Jarvis told the board.

Duties Limited

The duties of the teachers in these eight fields are such that it is not possible for them to accept other assignments where they may earn extra compensation, such as teach adult education classes, without jeopardizing their regular school program.

Supplemental pay had previously been authorized by the Board of Education for coaches in senior high schools, personnel employed in the youth services program, girls' athletic association leaders, and for special services performed by teachers for the personnel division.

New 174th, Ainsworth Tract Ready Sept. 1

A new 25-home tract at 174th and Ainsworth Ave., will be ready about Sept. 1, according to the builder, J. A. Norris.

The development will also include four triplexes. The homes will have three and four-bedrooms, including shake roofs, built-in stoves on large lots, with 20 by 20 garages.

TRUCK CARGO

Trucks haul about 66 per cent of all sand and gravel.

California Picnic Set

The California State Picnic will be held in Bixby Park, Long Beach, this Sunday between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. The band will play at 1 p.m. Those in attendance will bring picnic lunches.
