Marymount Seniors Receive Honors in Graduation Ceremony

Thirty Marymount seniors received honors and diplomas Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. when Marymount Palos Verdes conducted its formal graduation ceremony. The site was the newly constructed auditorium on campus and Monsignor Daniel P. Collins, J.C.D., S.T., officiated at the ceremony.

Graduates wore the traditional light blue formals designed and executed exclusively for them by Bullock's, and carried bouquets of long stem red roses.

This will be the largest class yet to graduate from Marymount Palos Verdes.

Local students honored include:

Alicia Gatti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gatti, 4249 W. 178th St., was graduated cum laude and was given the Cecilian Medal for proficiency in English and the Gold Medal for French. She is a CSF Torchbearer and a winner of a scholarship to Portland University in Portland, Ore.

Donna Grady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond D. Grady, 241 Via Linda Vista, Hollywood Riviera, was graduated cum laude, receiving a Gold Medal for Spanish and distinction in history.

Susan Stone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abel Stone, Hollywood Riviera, has been awarded a partial scholarship to Marymount College in Westwood.

The Spirit Trophy, awarded each graduation time to the class voted the most outstanding in enthusiasm, initiative, and school spirit during the preceding year was awarded to the Senior Class. Patricia Earl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Earn, 2604 Palos Verdes Drive West, Palos Verdes Estates, accepted the trophy on behalf of her classmates.

To Receive Degree

One of the 52 students from California who are among the 2014 candidates for degrees at Yale University's 257th commencement Monday will be Dorothy Joan Markham, 23317 Hawthorne Blvd.

The student will receive her master of nursing degree from the university.

Mills Given Scholarship

John M. Mills, El Camino College instructor of law and economics, will be one of 25 teachers in his subject area to study at Pomona College this summer under a scholarship from the Danforth Foundation.

The summer seminar on international economic policy and human values will be conducted on the Pomona campus from June 17 and 28. The study will provide opportunity for college teachers of international relations, government, contemporary history, international economics and demography to consult.
