American S-L Names Peterson As Manager

Lowell Peterson has joined American Savings and Loan Assn. as an executive vice president and managing officer, President S. Mark Taper announced today. He was also elected a member of the board of directors.

Peterson's appointment to head American Savings and Loan Assn. follows closely his recent affiliation with First Charter Financial Corp. as vice president and director.

First Charter Financial Corp., of which Taper is president is one of the country's largest holding companies. First Charter Financial Corp. owns American Savings and five other California savings and loan associations.

Baty's 'Polynesians' Sign New Contract

Harry Baty and his "Polynesians," one of the best known island musical groups, are now beginning their fourth consecutive year at The Polynesian Restaurant in Torrance.

The recording artists for Crown Records, who have six popular albums to their credit, were this week signed by owner-manager Pete Reitz to a new entertainment contract at tropical restaurant.
