North High Musical Festival Scheduled for Friday Night

Nearly 300 elementary school musicians from North Torrance will appear in the north area Music Festival Friday night, March 24, at 8 p.m. in the North High gymnasium.

Students from 12 elementary schools, orchestras and bands will join with the North High Strings and Saxon Band in presenting the concert. The program will include a number of band and orchestra numbers as well as a flute solo by Gregory Williams, baritone solo by Glen Eden, and brass sextet composed of Les Wilbanks, Gary Duncan, Leslie Rahmeyer, Rolly Reyes, Larry Adams, and Randy Lee.

Taking part will be students from Arlington, Carr, Casimir, Crenshaw, Edison, Hamilton, Lincoln, Madison, Magruder, Perry, Towers, and Yukon Elementary Schools.

Robert Jones directs the high school bands, while Jerry Andrews, Ronald Blank, Adrian Paskowitz, Neil Short, and Milton Marcus direct the bands and orchestras at the various elementary schools.

Numbers to be played include "Carmela Overture," "Fleur-de-Lis," Gavotto," "Polka," "Memories of Steven Foster," "Alegro, Adagio, and Alleluia," "La Cumparsita," "Hansel and Gretel," excerpts from "New World Symphony," "Holy, Holy, Holy," "Under the Double Eagle," "Citadel Overture, "Titoro," "Irish Washerwoman," and "Agnus Dei."

Palos Verdes Players Set Final Nights

Friday night marked the opening of the Palos Verdes Player's Production of "Flight Into Danger," a gripping drama, full of vivid excitement and mounting tension. The final performances will be given at Malaga Cove Auditorium in Palos Verdes Estates at 8:15 on March 24 and 25.

A large and experienced cast, directed by Robert Chapline, give a tense and convincing interpreation of the original television play by Arthur Hailey.

SIMPLICITY of the set and dramatic use of lighting, heighten the sense of danger which is enhanced by the touches of humor in the characterizations.

George Tremble, President of the Players, and Paul Warf, last seen in "The Silver Whistle," are actually pilots for United Airlines, although in this production, Mr. Tremble portrays the nervous, critical and suspicious passenger, Mr. Maine. Paul Warf stars as George Spencer, a factory salesman and hen-pecked ex-pilot. Mr. Warf states it is very difficult to appear incompetent and uncertain when he assumes control of this ill-fated aircraft.

BILLYE REDD gives a wonderful performance as the attractive stewardess, who keeps radio contact as the airliner nears the Los Angeles airport and the end of its unforgettable flight. Carl Bryson, as Dr. Baird, keeps a close watch over the folowing passengers and patients: Jackie Moore, Dean Irwin, Marjorie Carlson, Agatha Dancy, March Ann Phillips, Diane Pjerrou, Dick Twohy and Mike Talerico.

While at the L.A. Control Tower the controller, Ed Sinai; ticket agent, Lois Talerico; May Spencer, Juanita Bryson; switchboard operator; Mitzi Schmutz; Harry Burdick, Glenn Heffner and Captain Treleaven, Paul Moore handle the crisis on the ground.

Edna Irwin is assistant director with John Wulfson managing lights and set construction by Dick Jordahl. Tickets may be purchased at the door, $1.50 adults and 75 cents for children.
