CHURCH TO PRESENT PAGEANT

At a recent meeting of the members of the South Bay Church of God choir, plans were made for the Second Annual Christmas pageant which will be held on the church lawn at 17661 Yukon avenue. The presentation will be made twice nightly from December 17 through December 24 at 7 p.m. and 8 p.m.

THIS year a new opening scene has been added to the living story of Christ's birth. The audience will be ushered into the living room of a family where the father is seated reading aloud to the boy, "The Night Before Christmas." After carolers interrupt with singing outside the boy asks, "What is the real story about Christmas, Dad?" While the father reads the story from the Bible, spotlights will be focused on various actors depicting the manger scene, the shepards visit, King Herod on his throne, and the wise men's journey to Bethlehem. The final scene will show the boy praying at his father's feet. At last he understands the true story of Christmas.

The public is invited to attend as many presentations as possible. Souvenir programs will be distributed to all who attend.

OBITUARIES

KIDO, E. AGNES, age 87 resided in Torrance. Native of Poland. Prayer services were held Monday at the HALVERSON LEAVELL MORTUARY. Remains were flown to Boston, Mass., for interment. Survivors: Niece Alice Doherty of Torrance, brother, Felix Mozdziez of Massachuestts and nephew Henry Waz.

WEAVER, ANNA MAY, age 68, has lived in city 30 years. Native of Scotland. Rosary October 18, 1956. HALVERSON LEAVELL MORTUARY CHAPEL. Survived by husband, Matthew S. Weaver, daughter, Betty May Elder. Services, Nativity Catholic Church.

Local Church To Attend 3 Day Meet

The Torrance Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses are making preliminary plans to attend a three-day ministry-training program, October 26-28 at the Forum theatre, 4050 West Pico boulevard.

Gerald F. Dunham, presiding minister of the Torrance congregation, emphasized the need of this training in order to meet the challenge to Christian thinking.

"The object of the program is to equip every Jehovah's Witness in the practical use of the Bible as a help in fortifying the spiritual morale of people in our community," Mr. Dunham said.

FINAL MISSION MEETS SUNDAY

The second and final week of Nativity Catholic Church Mission will begin on Sunday evening, October 21, at 7:30 p.m. and is for men and teenage boys. This mission is being given by Father Roland Maher and Father Keith Schlitz, Passionist Missionaries, at 1447 Engracia avenue, Torrance.

Services are at 7:30 p.m. each evening; Masses at 6, 7:30 and 8:45 a.m. daily with short instructions after the 6 and 8:45 Masses. Sunday Masses are at 6, 7, 8, 9, 10:15, 11:15 a.m. and 12:15 p.m.

Non-Catholic men and boys are invited to attend.

EVANGELIST

Sunday, October 21, is "Bring Your Friends Day" at the Church of God, 2230 Cabrillo ave. Rev. George Broome's sermon topic will be "Christ on Trial."

The Youth Revival with youth evangelist Martin Steenburgh, will continue throughout next week and all members and friends are invited to hear him sing and preach.

CITY OF HOPE HELPERS

Torrance leaders met last week to formulate plans for helping the City of Hope. Among those heading the drive are (l-r) Harvel Guttenfelder, Mrs. Paul Roettger, Mrs. Dean L. Sears, Mrs. John W. Beeman, and Glen Koger.—Press Photo

YULE BAZAAR WILL FEATURE MANY BOOTHS

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Walteria Community Methodist church will hold its fifth annual bazaar on Saturday, November 12, from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. A turkey dinner, by advance reservation only, will be served between the hours of 6 p.m. and 7:30 p.m., during which time the bazaar will close.

"Santa's Village" will be the theme for this year's bazaar, according to Mrs. Robert Allison, Bazaar chairman. The following booths will be available for the purchase of Christmas gift. The Pixieland and Santa's Sack booths will sell toys and grab bag packages under the chairmanship of Mrs. Bill Bailey, the Candy Cane lane booth will will have homemade pastries, candies, and homemade mince meat made from a secret recipe from the family of Mrs. Herbert Pemble, chairman. A Christmas Surprises booth will be filled with novelties and surprises for the Christmas shopper, according to Mrs. Kenneth Peerson, Chairman; the Yuletide Gaities booth, under the co-chairmanship of Mrs. Alward Fuller and Edna Cunningham, will feature an assortment of aprons for sale.

Mesdames William Taylor, Bill Williams, William Cunningham, Charles Beck and Mrs. Mary Kifer will prepare the turkey dinner. The girls from the World Friendship group will serve.

Friends are invited to come and browse around for Christmas gifts and enjoy the pre-Christmas atmosphere.

'City of Hope' Drive Gets Under Way Here

An opportunity to take a youngster's hand and help him in his fight to prolong life, is being offered Southern Californians during the third annual Christmas Parade of Towns, benefitting the children's wing of the City of Hope, Duarte, California.

Governor Goodwin J. Knight is honorary godfather for the event, which extends from October 15 to December 31.

In a recent message, Governor Knight urged all Southland residents to "share in this dynamic, humanitarian effort to aid children stricken with catastrophic disease."

Knight pointed out that in the children's wing of the free, nonsectarian City of Hope, the average cost of care for each child for one day is $40—an amount which is often doubled or even tripled in complex cases—and that one month's care represents a minimum cost of $1,200.

Godparents for Torrance are Glen Koger, 1739 W. 213th st., and Mrs. John Beeman, 1518 El Prado. Overall Harbor Area chairman is Sam Levy, 1311 Sartori. Harbor "godmother" is Ella Schwartz, same address.

Guardians to date are Mrs. Dean L. Sears, 1635 Post ave., and Messrs. Mervin M. Schwab, 1508 Acacia ave., and Harvel Guttenfelder, 1427 Post ave.

Local Pastor Elected to LA Baptist Post

Rev. Robert A. Wells, of the Narbonne Avenue Baptist church, Lomita, has been elected moderator of the Los Angeles association of Southern Baptists. His selection came at the annual meeting in the First Baptist church of Santa Fe Springs. The local church was also selected as the host church for the next annual meeting.

Sunday, October 21, the pastor will begin a series of sermons from the Book of Acts. The series will deal with the theme, "The New Testament Church on the Move" with special emphasis on the comparison of the early Christian movement with that of today. The messages will be delivered at both the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services. At the 7:30 evening service the ordinance of baptism will be observed.

Also in evidence this Sunday will be new choir robes for the adult choir and new hymn books for the congregation recently purchased by the church.

Methodist Church Will Observe Laymen's Sunday

Laymen's Sunday will be observed at First Methodist church, 1551 El Prado, on Sunday, October 21. The morning worship services will be conducted by the following laymen: Martin Jack, president of Methodist Men's club; Richard Brown, Jr., chairman of the Official board; Robert Mason, church school superintendent; and Frank Fisher, Sr., lay leader.

A special feature of the observance will be the Cross-Moving at 10 a.m., symbolizing the beginning of the remodeling of the main church building. The cross which has been at the top of the tower will be moved to the gable of the present sanctuary. The tower will also be removed during the remodeling, since the front of the existing building will be changed from the Spanish style to contemporary architecture.
