CONSTRUCTION STARTS ON HALLDALE AVENUE DRAINS

Two major improvements along the "strip" will end long standing drainage and traffic problems, Councilman John S. Gibson announced this week as the Los Angeles City Council awarded contracts for the installation of storm drains along Halldale ave. between 212 and 214 st.

At the same time, Gibson said, the paving and construction of sidewalks on Denker ave. between 212 and 214 st. will be undertaken. Work on both projects is being rushed to meet a December 1 deadline.

The Halldale ave. drain will include the installation of 48 and 42 inch reinforced concrete pipe to drain into the county flood control basin. Robert Kleppinger Construction Co., with its low bid of $19,291, was awarded the contract.

Low bidder on the Denker ave. improvement project was George Savalla who asked $5,500 to complete the work.

LUNCH AT HUFF'S WILL HELP CHEST

Patrons of Huff's Restaurant in Torrance will not only be satisfying their noonday hunger but also indirectly helping 167 health and welfare service if they come for lunch next Tuesday.

That day is Huff's first anniversary. All the proceeds of the restaurant received between the hours of 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. will be divided between the Community Chest, which is now conducting its annual fund raising campaign, and the City of Hope Hospital, Bob Nason, Moe Sutton, and Phil Phillips, proprietors of Huff's, announced.

Firemen Line Up 'March' For Muscular Dystrophy

Plans for the Torrance Fire Fighters 1957 March for Muscular Dystrophy fund-raising campaign were advanced this week by several appointments, Campaign Chairman Captain Walter R. West announced.

Richard DeArmitt has been appointed as co-chairman of the fire fighters 1957 march in the city. Two coordinating committees, one from each of the shifts, "A" and "B", have been formed. Comprising the "A" shift committee are Captain Billy Slonecker, Sam Martin and Jerry Holloman. Captain Milton T. Langum and Harlan Whitacre make up the "B" shift. Ray Stratton of the "A" shift will serve as publicity photographer and photograph and donate all publicity pictures.

Working in cooperation with the firemen will be the Ladies Auxiliary of the Torrance Fire Department "Fireladies", who have offered to furnish transportation and drivers throughout the March.

In making his announcements Captain West said, "The March for Muscular Dystrophy has always been endorsed by the nations fire fighters but this year in Torrance we hope to surpass all previous records for a successful drive. Only medical research can save the lives of thousands of children crippled and dying from Muscular Dystrophy.

"Polio is conquered. Muscular Dystrophy can be next. You can help by supporting your local firemen when he calls at your home (door) during the March for Muscular Dystrophy, December 2 to 7."

Lillian Heim, Teacher, Dies

Services for Mrs. Lillian Thames Heim, 48, of 16927 Wilkie ave., were held Tuesday in the Colonial Chapel of the Hardin and Flanagan Mortuary.

Mrs. Heim, a teacher at the Billie Mitchell school, Lawndale, died last Thursday after a brief illness. She had taught in Lawndale since 1952. Before that time she was a teacher in Compton.

Survivors include her husband John, a sister, and three brothers.

Rites Honor War Dead

Honoring veterans of both World Wars and the Korean War, civic and patriotic groups in the North Torrance area, headed by Gen. Billy Mitchell Post 580 of the American Legion, observed Veterans' Day at Lawndale Civic Center Sunday afternoon.

A star shaped wreath in gold flowers was placed at the Civic Center plaque honoring all veterans killed in action, by five Gold Star Mothers, led by Mrs. Mary Gallagher.

The featured speaker was Dr. John Lechner, Americanism chairman for the Twenty-third District, American Legion, who pointed out that in three wars in less than 35 years, beginning with World War I, 553,927 of the flower of America's manhood were killed, and 965,609 wounded, many fatally. "These were the best of our young men, those who excelled physically and mentally. There is a void in our economy and in our government at the top levels through the untimely loss of potential leaders which we must recognize in this critical era as a bitter price for victory in war."

Mayor Named Campaign Chairman of Y Drive

The Torrance YMCA announced today that Mayor Albert Isen has been named General Campaign chairman for the 1958 YMCA Current Support Campaign. Ten other community leaders have also accepted key jobs in the local YMCA drive for operating funds.

Even though the annual campaign does not begin until January 20, much preparation is necessary in order to recruit the 250 laymen who will have a goal of $30,000 to raise this year.

Isen pointed out that this was a $4,500 increase from last year's drive, but was necessary in order to serve the many thousands of new youngsters who are taking part in YMCA activities in Torrance. The new goal will provide a new full time professional YMCA secretary to work with teen-age youth, as well as enable the YMCA to continue its many clubs, tribes, athletics, and YMCA camps during holidays.

Isen announced that L. N. Gill has once again accepted chairmanship of the Century Club Division in the drive, and will be recruiting $100 memberships from leading citizens. Other key leaders returning are: Sam Van Wagner, Parents Division; Ed Raphael and Paul Diamond, Commercial Division; Bill Speck, Church Division; and Joe Wilcox, the Executive Secretary of the local YMCA, will again direct the campaign.

New chairmen recruited thus far include: Mervin Schwab, Clubs Division; Scott Albright, Ben Smith, and Ralph Morris, who will be known as Space Bosses, with the task of keeping the entire drive in high gear.

Isen said, "$30,000 sounds like a lot of money, but every penny is spent here in Torrance to provide many wonderful YMCA services for over 5,500 local youngsters. Remember, the 'Y' is always open to any boy from six years old up who wants to take part."

Normandale Play Director, Y. F. Hammett, Awarded Pin

Y. F. Hammett, known as "Mule" to his thousands of friends in county playgrounds, was awarded a 25-year pin by the Los Angeles Recreation Commission this week in recognition of his services to the youth of the county.

Now chief recreation director of the Normandale playground at 22400 S. Halldale st., Torrance, Hammett was presented the service pin by Ernest Ehrke, district recreation director, in a special ceremony Tuesday.

Hammett began work as a recreation director in 1929, while still a sophomore at the University of Southern California. Since then he has worked in playgrounds throughout the county, and has been stationed at Normandale for the last four years.

A former USC mile and cross-country runner, Hammett's time of 4:26 established in 1926 while he was a high school student in New Orleans still stands as the city high school record.

The son of a cross-country runner who won the New Orleans six and a half mile title in New Orleans in 1908, Hammett ran with his father over the same course in 1928. In January, he said, he plans to participate in the same New Orleans meet with his 17-year old son, Bill.

In his 25 years of service as a recreation director, Hammett has received recognition awards from the National 4-H clubs, and other youth organizations. But he gives the credit for this recognition to his volunteer workers.

Two months ago, he awarded certificates of appreciation to a group of 40 volunteers assisting him in the baseball, football and basketball leagues and games held at the playground. The volunteers turned around, he said, and presented him with a wall plaque to honor his work as a community recreation builder.
