Issues Warning Health Dept.

Local health authorities received word today from the California State Department of Public Health to give additional publicity to the fact that Gebhardt Eagle Chili Powder in 1 and 3 ounce bottles may contain glass fragments, according to Dr. Roy O. Gilbert, Los Angeles County Health Officer.

Several days ago the Federal Food and Drug Administration, together with the Gebhardt Chili Powder Company, issued a warning to the public and to wholesale food distributors that glass fragments had been found in the chili powder and that its use could cause internal injuries.

New Church In Carson

St. Philomena Roman Catholic Church is now conducting services in its new church building located at 21848 S. Main st., though construction is as yet incomplete. Services in the past have been held in the Plasterers Hall on Carson st.

Rev. Frederick M. Callahan, pastor of St. Philomena has announced that mass will be held each Sunday at 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 a.m. in the new building. President of the Holy Name Society is Victor Spielman; Men's Club, Fred Pfadt and the Women's Club, Mrs. Edward Bernardin.

The new parish school of St. Philomena is still under construction, but is expected to be ready for classes in September.

KEYSTONE BAPTIST

Members of the Keystone Baptist Church, 435 W. 220 st., have made a plan to attend a Brotherhood Rally of the Long Beach-Harbor Association at the First Southern Baptist Church, 5640 Orange ave., Long Beach. Reservations can be made by calling the pastor of the Keystone Baptist Church, Rev. A. D. Likens.

Jerry Parker is Chorister of the church. Services begin on Sunday morning with Sunday School at 9:45 a.m., under the direction of Gerald Caughern, superintendent. Morning worship is at 10:45. Training Union is at 6:30 p.m., Charles Bumgardner, director. Evening worship is at 7:30 p.m. each Sunday.

Each day there is something doing for members of the church but Wednesday night is the busiest with prayer meeting, teachers meeting and choir practice.

AVALON BAPTIST

"Servants of Christ," was the message given by the pastor, Rev. Harry J. Lansman at the Avalon Baptist Church at 451 E. 223 st. at 11 a.m. last Sunday. This was the theme of the installation service of the new officers for the current church year.

The officers recognized in this dedication service were: Deacons; Bob Gammon, Walt Windham, Ben Steerman, Carl Webb, George Fisher, Ernest Newberry and Alvis Cook.

Deaconess: Mrs. Opal Holbert, Mrs. Vera Nance, Mrs. Zula Henry, Mrs. Lucille Windham, Mrs. Gladys Steerman, Mrs. Oleta Mathison and Mrs. Edith Newberry.

Trustees: Don Dillon, Jeff Holbert, Pete Maupin, Mel Smith, Larry Schamber and Reynold Kordatzky.

Sunday School Supt.: Carl Webb. Church Clerk: Mrs. Cora Kordatzky. Church treasurer: Mrs. Gen Willey. Financial secretary: Ouida Forrest. Publicity chairman: Mrs. Luretta Webb.
