El Camino Art Instructor Will Direct County Exhibit

Robert Niece, art instructor at El Camino College, will fill the position of Director of California Design No. 6 following appointment by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors.

The position was offered through Tom Leavitt, director of the Pasadena Art Museum.

Californiaa Design No. 6, the sixth annual art exhibit of its kind to be sponsored by Los Angeles County, will be under Niece's supervision and will be on display from Jan. 10 to Feb. 14, 1960, in two galleries of the Pasadena Art Museum.

The position came as a post-climax to popularity of Niece's recently published textbook on art appreciation, "Art: An Approach."

Leavitt met Niece through this text. He recognized him as the man he was looking for to fill the job, and the two met shortly thereafter to talk over details of the position.

The exhibit will display more than 200 items, from outdoor furniture and accessories to interior furniture domestic fabrics, and household equipment.

The only qualification an item must meet for showing is that it be designed or manufactured within the county.

Niece attended the Los Angeles Art Center School and received his BA and MA from Los Angeles City College and Los Angeles State College. He came to the ECC campus after being art instructor in Gardena and Manual Arts high schools.

In 1952 Niece exhibited a 40-foot mobile before the main building of the State Fair at Sacramento.

Niece said the real - rooted ground that carried him farthest was his belief that art is a way of living.

During a recent 12-month period approximately 1300 white canes were issued free to blind persons.
