R. E. Wilson Named Principal of Adams Elementary School

Ralph E. Wilson will be principal of Adams Elementary School, 2121 W. 238th St. It will be the district's 32nd school.

Wilson is vice principal at Fern-Greenwood Adams will open in April. Construction has been delayed recently. The new school will drastically reduce the double sessions at Wood Elementary School.

Adams will have 10 classrooms, administration unit, multipurpose facility, and shop and homemaking facilities. Another four classrooms and music room will be added later.

The new principal, 29, is a graduate of Los Angeles State College and holds a master's degree from USC.

A Los Angeles native, he attended Washington High School. He and his wife live at 1737-B W. 166th St. They have one child.
