County Supervisors Reaffirm Ban On Christmas Parties in Offices

On motion of Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, the County Board of Supervisors has reaffirmed its long-standing ban on liquor at Christmas parties in County offices.

Supervisor Hahn pointed out that it is illegal for alcoholic beverages to be served or consumed in any County buildings at any time, but that the ban is emphasized during the holiday season.

All County department heads are to inform their employees of the prohibition.

In urging passage of the motion, Supervisor Hahn declared that the consumption of liquor is not in the true spirit of Christmas, which is essentially a religious holiday.

OBSERVANCE

"There are so many good, wholesome, spiritual ways of observing Christmas, such as attending religious services, music programs like the all-day Christmas eve concert at the Sports Arena, and family reunions, there is no need to celebrate with liquor," Supervisor Hahn declared.

He pointed out that the Christmas holiday season is worst period of the year from the standpoint of traffic safety.

"The increased traffic on our streets and highways during this season makes driving very difficult. No one has the right to endanger human lives and property by drunken driving," Supervisor Hahn emphasized.

Michigan State Versus UClans in Court Classic

Opening round of play in next Wednesday's Los Angeles basketball classic at the Sports Arena will pit Michigan State vs. UCLA at 1:30 p.m. and Iowa vs. California at 3:30 p.m. in the afternoon doubleheaders and Minnesota vs. SC at 7 p.m. and Indiana vs. Stanford at 9 p.m. in the evening twin bill, it was released by the holiday tournament officials.

Pairings for next Thursday's sessions, of course, will depend on the outcome of the opening games. The consolation bracket for the losing teams will be held next Friday afternoon and the championship games that night.

High-ranking Indiana is the pre-tourney favorite. California's defending classic champions also are rated as strong title contenders along with Iowa, UCLA and SC. Off their early season play, Stanford, Michagan State and Minnesota are the underdog entries.

'FINEST TOURNEY

"This meet took its place as one of the country's finest holiday basketball tournaments last year and the 1960 edition should be equally exciting," Wilbur Johns, chairman, said.
