El Camino Defeats Valley Grids, 42-20

Football season came to an end for El Camino College Saturday, with a 42-20 victory over Los Angeles Valley College at the Van Nuys campus.

The win was Camino's second in Metropolitan Conference play and gave the Tribe fourth place in the final standings.

Overall, the Warriors defeated five opponents and tied stubborn Santa Monica.

Season wins were registered over Phoenix, 27-14; L.A. Pierce, 21-6; Mt. San Antonio, 34-0; East L.A., 36-12; and Valley. Losses came at the hands of Cerritos, 27-21, Bakersfield, 35-23, and Long Beach, 23-0. The trio finished in that same order atop the Metro standings.

The Warriors finished ahead of their foes in total points scored, 232-165.

El Camino appeared headed for a rugged contest with Valley, trailing twice, 6-0, and 12-7. The pass-catching of Rick Eber and Dave Hubert, combined with the running of Chuck Woods, however, doomed the Monarchs to their seventh straight loss to the Warriors.

After a 74-yard pass play had put Valley ahead on the third play of the game, Warrior halfback Chuck Woods sprinted 67 yards for a touchdown. Bob Jenks' extra-point kick was good.

After Valley regained the lead n the first play of the second quarter, Tribe QB Carey Hubert fired two passes to brother Dave Hubert for 45 and 39 yards, Jenks' kick made it 14-12.

With 43 seconds remaining in the half, Warrior linebacker Ron Murrey intercepted a Monarch pass and, combined with a Valley penalty, moved the ball to the Monarchs' 11-yard line. Coach Ken Swearingen used the tackle-eligible play to score the touchdown as Hubert lofted a pass to left tackle Cliff Specht.

Lineman Mike Carsey led a barrage of Warriors through Valley to block a punt in the second half. Carsey picket up the pigskin and ran it back to the Valley one. Carey Hubert burst into the end zone. Jenks kicked the fourth of his six conversions to pad the lead, 28-12.

All - American candidate Rick Eber, right end, provided the final two touchdowns of the season with his usual fantastic catches as he hauled in an 83-yard bomb from reserve quarterback Bob Quarry and a 15-yarder from Hubert.

Eber caught three passes for 127 yards along with making another creditable performance all the way on defense. The Redondo letterman intercepted two passes off Valley and contained the Monarchs' vaunted pass receiver Terrel Ray.

Seventeen Warriors played their final game for El Camino Saturday. They are Tom Brase, Joseph Campeau, Eber, Mike Hannigan, Alvin Holfield, Larry Horne, Carey Hubert, Mike Jacobs, Bob Jones, Murrey, Ed Pease, Dave Rabuse, Joe Scrofani, Randall Smyth, Specht, Bill Turner and Woods.

Basketball Opens On College Front

The basketball season will open officially for the El Camino College Warriors when they travel to Costa Mesa Friday at 8 p.m. to compete in a non-conference game with Orange Coast College.

Following the Friday night opener, the Warriors will play host to College of the Sequoias in El Camino College's new gymnasium Saturday at 8 p.m.

In addition to two preseasonal scrimmages with Loyola, the Tribe won the annual Alumni game.

Stanich has used these practice encounters to view his entire squad under pressure and to make the difficult choice of five starters for this weekend's dual battle.

The five men chosen are forward Steve Wright, a returning letterman from last year and a graduate of El Segundo; forward Ed Palmquist, 6'4" from Hawthorne; center Alan Lepper, who at North High made all-CIF and MVP in 1964; guard Bob Osbrink of Inglewood, and Bob Brennan from Torrance High School, where he made first team CIF-AA.

DRAGSTERS

A drag racing field headed by world record holder Tom McEwen, Hot Rod champ Nando Haase, stock car racing hero Gas Ronda and more than a score of fuel dragster drivers will compete Saturday and Sunday at the Pomona Fairgrounds in the second annual NHRA Drag Festival.
