New Curb Numbering Plan Opens

Residents of Torrance are beginning to receive new curb numbers at their address, according to an announcement made by Robert H. Vroman, chairman of the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce fund raising committee in support of the Torrance Float in the annual Tournament of Roses Parade.

In discussing the plan, Vroman indicated that dwelling numbers will be painted on the curbing in front of each home and apartment building. The plan will provide a uniform system throughout the city in which the numbers will be of patented glass, light reflecting, luminous paint and four inches in height.

IN ADDITION to the obvious objective of raising funds with which to provide a representative float in the Tournament of Roses Parade and greater recognition of Torrance throughout the world, Vroman cited additional advantages to be gained.

"This program will assist all governmental agencies in locating residents in case of emergencies." He mentioned difficulties encountered by members of the police and fire departments, ambulance services, and utility companies in quickly locating Torrance residents. Also he indicated greater ease to be encountered by the general public in finding the residence of friends and relatives.

The Jaycee spokesman was quick to point out that while the program was endorsed by Torrance city officials, payment for the service is not obligatory on the part of Torrance residents.

"The dwelling number will be painted in front of each residence without first contacting the owner. Following completion of the painting, a card requesting a donation of $2 will be left; however, no attempt will be made to secure a fee at this time. Approximately one week later, the resident will be solicited, unless a donation has already been received."

"The residents of Torrance have always displayed a willingness to support worthwhile civic and community projects. Considering the benefits to all, I feel certain that the residents of Torrance will give this program their whole hearted support," Mayor Albert Isen said.

Senior Citizens Pledge to Back Townsend in 67th

Larry E. Townsend, who is seeking election to the 67th Assembly District, was endorsed last week by the California League of Senior Citizens.

Mr. Townsend, a Democrat, is seeking to fill the seat being vacated by the retirement of Clayton A. Dills.

O'Leary Says Viet Blockade Needed to End Current Mess

William "Bill" O'Leary, candidate for Congress in the 17th Congressional District, called for a naval blockade of North Viet Nam. O'Leary, speaking at a spaghetti dinner given in his honor, stated he did not think this would lead to a war with Red China.

"The bulk of the supplies for the N. Viet Nam war effort is brought in by shipping, especially oil and fuel. The railroad system from Red China is not developed enough to carry all the needed supplies. Any Russian supplies using the Chinese railroads is constantly harassed by forms and paper work to the point that movement of large amounts of equipment is practically nil."

DEBATE ON Viet Nam can be healthy in forming future foreign policy O'Leary said, but debate on Viet Nam has been conducted in such a manner that it is costing more American lives. The debate has been an effort to get us to withdraw from Viet Nam.

The immediate problem is not whether we should be in Viet Nam, we are there, O'Leary said, the problem is how can we best get out with a just and honorable peace.

O'Leary feels a Naval blockade would soon bring the war to the conference table and save many American lives.

"Our boys are there in Viet Nam doing an excellent job. However, if I am elected I would exert as much influence as humanly possible in order to bring about a peaceful solution to the war problem and bring our boys home as soon as possible."

ASKED ABOUT what he felt his chances were on unseating veteran incumbent Cecil R. King, O'Leary said:

"Mr. King has been the 17th Congressional District Congressman long enough, and I and many of our citizens think its time for a change. Mr. King is 68 years of age and his present health condition is not good. I feel the 17th Congressional District Congressman should reside in the District he represents, at least part of the time."

O'Leary said King hasn't made a physical appearance in the 17th District since October, 1964.

"He does not even reside in the area, nor does he have a field office or representative in the area. I feel I have an excellent chance to unseat him," O'Leary said.

O'LEARY elected to the County Committee in 1964, has served as chairman of the South Bay Democratic Club and the Spirit of 76 Democratic Club.

He is an insurance agent and a former youth director for Walteria Methodist Church. A navy veteran of WWII, he resides at 1821 W. 244th St., Lomita. The 38-year-old candidate attended El Camino and Long Beach State Colleges where he was active in several events.

'Twelve Angry Men' to Be Done at Footlight Theatre

"Twelve Angry Men," directed by Edith D. Nielsen, will open Friday at 8:30 p.m. at the Footlight Theatre, 3335 Torrance Blvd. Additional performances will be held May 28, June 3-4, 10-11, 17-18.

The entire action takes place in a jury room where the trial of a young man accused of murder has just concluded. The jurors have retired to consider their verdict. Eleven of the members vote for conviction, but one juror is not sure and he will not vote until the evidence has been carefully reviewed.

As the play unravels, the verdict in this particular trial becomes almost insignificant and the jurors begin to weigh the forces of justice itself.

The cast includes veteran Footlight Actors, including Glenn Hoeffner, Stewart Angus, Myron Cole, Dennis Pierce, Ted Busch and James O'Donnell.

Anyone desiring reservations or group rates may call FA 8-7901.
