Sunday Concert In Park

Music with a beat from progressive jazz to latin rhythm will sound out at Torras the "Imperials," a teenage as the "Imperials," a teen-age stage-dance band, present its annual summer concert.

Beginning at 2 p.m. at the park, 2001 Santa Fe Ave., the band will present a variety of "Music for a Summer Sunday."

• • •

THE GROUP began more than five years ago as part of the Torrance Recreation Department's youth program to provide music for many area events including the annual aquacade, civic dedications, and recreation department sponsored dances. The group also provided the core of the orchestra at the recent Torrance teenage production of "Bye Bye Birdie."

Because band members have not only grown in experience, but also in age, from junior high to senior high school, a second, younger band was recently formed.

• • •

DIRECTOR Ron Large is aided by a parent group which elects a board of directors to aid the recreation department in setting guidelines for the band.

This year's parent president is Phil Perrine of Torrance.

• • •

MEMBERS OF the band include saxaphone players Tim Farnam, Darryll Keene, Larry Lindow, Phil Perrine, Don Van Buskirk, and Wayne Weber.

Al Davis, Paul Erzen, Mark Judd, Mike Morelock, John Otten and Richard Shelton play the trumpets.

• • •

TROMBONISTS include Pat Benningfield, Mike Deutch, Neal Harvey, Dave Seeley, Neal Shinder and Don Taylor.

Pianist is Larry Cunningham, and Deryl Lloyd is on the Bass. Keeping the beat on the drums is Dale Stitts.

"Music for a Summer Sunday" in August will also feature the annual "Fun Through Music" concert; a Hootenany, and the Barber Shop Quartet Society Concert.

Ball Family To Vacation In Hawaii

Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Ball of Torrance will leave Torrance Friday for Hawaii, as the result of a contest sponsored by Western Federal Savings.

The Balls and their two children, Brenda, 8, and Steven, 6, selected Hawaii as their vacation spot being given a choice of "any vacation spot in the west."

Ball won the Western Federal Savings' Vacation Sweepstakes by matching a number of his sweepstakes with a number posted at Western Federal's Del Amo office, 21028 Hawthorne Blvd.

YOUNG PIANIST . . . Jimmy Celoni, 11, of 4565 Cadison St. will play Saturday on the John Marshall Talent Search television program. The show done live in color will be on from 3:30-4:30 on Channel 13.

Bookmaking Plan Draws Quick Fire

Assemblyman Charles J. Conrad (R-Los Angeles) has denounced a proposal by the American Trial Lawyers' Association to legalize bookmaking as "an invitation for organized crime to take over the State of California."

"It is especially unfortunate that such a proposal would come from a group of lawyers who should recognize the danger that is not apparent to the average citizen," Conrad said.

"It is true that there is no moral difference between placing a wager at a race track or with a bookmaker," he added. "The difference is the pari-mutuel at a track can be kept free from gangster influence, but it is impossible to have bookmaking legel or otherwise without having it taken over by the underworld.

"I certainly hope that Governor Brown, who addressed this meeting will point out the dangers inherent in such a proposal."

Signal Voted Narbonne, Palos Verdes

Plans and specifications for traffic control signals at Palos Verdes Drive North and Narbonne Avenue, have been adopted, Supervisor Burton W. Chace said today.

Los Angeles County Supervisors Tuesday voted to advertise for bids on the project.

"These signals are vitally needed," Chace said.

"The project will be expedited, and we anticipate the construction will be completed in November."

This is the second time the County has advertised for bids. Earlier, excessively high bids were rejected by Supervisors.

The new bids for the project will be opened by the Board Aug. 23. The project plans were prepared by the County Road Department.

Media Adviser Attends USC

David Woodruff of 4410 W. 233rd St. is attending an eight-week Educational Media Specialists Institute at the University of Southern California under auspices of the National Defense Education Act. He is consultant of the Instructional Media Center at Redondo Beach City Schools.

The 30 participants are receiving advanced study in the use of teaching machines and TV and motion pictures in elementary and high schools.

UC Awards Degrees to 30 Youths

Thirty Southwest area students have been awarded degrees by the University of California, Berkeley. The degrees were conferred in June during commencement exercises at the Berkeley campus and became official last week, following final checking of grades.

A total of 8,669 graduates comprise the 1966 class — largest in the 98-year history of the University of California.

Torrance residents earning bachelor's degrees included William G. Deck, Otto C. Ledford Jr., and Jay L. Lippman.

Bachelor's degrees also were conferred on Richard W. Butterworth, Lee G. Cooper, Sally L. Hansen, Linda E. Chriss, Carole Anne Lynch, and Cleone Ann Rector, all of Redondo Beach; Edward W. Beckwith, Robert E. Caniglia, and Carole Ann Doi, all of Gardena; Walter R. Hedrick, Dustin M. Miller, Waldemar P. Ruemmler II, Emilie M. Wulffson, and James R. Zelers, all of Palos Verdes Estates, and Herbert H. DeFriez of Harbor City.

Advanced degrees or certificates were conferred on Thomas R. Simpson of Wilmington, Laurence L. George and Ruth Ann Pattison of Redondo Beach, Rina Benmayor of Harbor City, Joyce Ann Young of Gardena, and Mary Beth Higman, Roberta Jean Lowe, Elfreda R. Mortensen, Richard E. Mortensen, Margaret F. Stieg, and Loyce D. Taylor, all of Palos Verdes Estates.

Local Girl Enters Fair Competition

Anne Marie Hall of 1806 Schilling Drive, has entered the Junior Fair 4-H home economics competition at the Los Angeles County Fair.
