It was the Eriez gas-burning cooking stove that was on exhibition in the Fiesta tent, Mr. McDonald being in charge. There was nothing to explain; the stove is self-explanatory, and it dispenses with the drudgery usually connected with the art of cooking. Get one now and then you will have one in ample time to fit the Thanksgiving turkey.

For art work, illustrating for commercial purposes, show card writing, banners, and advertising illustrations, see Rea Myers, Magnolia Ave., phone 577; or Adcard Studio, 717 W. 7th St., upstairs, Los Angeles.

LOOK OUT FOR THE SPLINTERS

George Proctor and Billy Overman were discussing the "Dry Age" one day at a meeting of the Fourth Chambers. George suggested wood alcohol was coming into use, but Billy insisted it was dangerous.

"I should think it would be," added George. "Think of the danger from splinters."

CHANGE THE NAME

It may not be opportune for some horticultural body to urge a change in names, or a change in nomenclature—that's the high-sounding word, of the strawberry, dewberry, raspberry and blackberry. But neither straw, nor dew, nor rasps, nor the designation of a false color should rightly continue. The alligator pear now has the more musical name of avocado. It is time that the grapefruit, which is not a grape, should be baptized with its other and more sonorous name of pomelo.

SAGE TEA PUTS LIFE AND COLOR IN HAIR

Don't stay gray! Sage Tea and Sulphur darkens hair so naturally that nobody can tell.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost over night if you'll get a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.
