

TORRANCE HERALD

VOLUME VII. NO. 39

TORRANCE, LOS ANGELES COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1920

$1.50 PER YEAR

About People

Wanted—Girl to care for sleeping rooms in hotel. Address Box 28, Torrance.

Mrs. C. W. Roberts and Mrs. H. W. Roberts spent Saturday in Los Angeles shopping.

Dressmaking and children's sewing at reasonable prices. Spurlin Court, House R. (2t)

Mrs. R. D. Denison and daughter Geraldine visited at the home of her aunt at Rose Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Rice, who purchased a half acre tract, are completing their new home on Plaza del Amo.

Mr. Cecil Havens has purchased a car and is planning on taking a great many joy rides in the near future.

FOR SALE—Two milk cows and 2 heifers. E. O. Kirkpatrick, 1/2 mile west of Bank.

A number of people from Torrance attended the show given by the Elk Lodge at Redondo, Monday evening.

HOUSE FOR RENT—Carson St., 2 blocks east of Union Tool Co., Torrance. W. Dinsmore.

Mr. Harry Roberts is busy moving into his new quarters, where he will open a cafeteria, soda fountain and confectionary store.

I am prepared to do all kinds of automobile painting at reasonable prices. All work guaranteed. Thomas Griffin, at Zaver's Garage.

About seventy-five people from Torrance and Lomita attended the Masonic picnic at Orange County Park near Orange, Sunday. Everyone reports an enjoyable time.

FOR SALE—Reasonable; an 8-room house; 2 kitchens; lot 190x60; garage for 2 cars; chickens, fruit trees. Some rooms rented. A paying proposition. Call at 124 South Gaudalupa Ave., Redondo, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wesley moved down from Los Angeles this week. They have rooms at the Colonial Apartments at present, but are planning to build immediately on their half-acre lot on Arlington Ave.

Central Church was favored with a splendid congregation last Sunday and the sermon and special music by the choir were appreciated by all.

Mr. Charles Curtis rendered a solo "My Task," by Ashford, in the morning. Miss Mildred Hermans of Pasadena sang very beautifully, "My Eye is on the Sparrow."

Evening Mrs. Perry Briney and Miss Ruth Spreng rendered very effectively "He Knows It All."

PUBLIC MEETING

A public meeting was held at the school house, Tuesday evening, to discuss the constitutional amendments to be voted upon next Tuesday in the general election.

A CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank the many kind friends for their unnumbered acts of kindness to my wife during her last and fatal illness and their devotion is appreciated with heartfelt gratitude to the utmost. John S. Shearmur.

A SMASH

Tuesday morning the driver of an automobile started his machine while it was in gear. The result was the destruction of a large plate glass window in the front of the Roi Tan restaurant, and slight damages to the machine. Draw your own moral.

RUSHING BUSINESS

"Duffyhast"; the Hub gents furnishing goods store of Redondo, hats and caps, cases and boxes were stacked the entry and strung along the counters; business; that's it. It required considerable exertion to gain entrance into the store, the other day. But customers were welcomed with the usual courtesy and departed with satisfaction.

TAXI SERVICE FOR TORRANCE

Dwyers Accessory and Tire shop has established a first-class taxi service and are prepared to take care of all business of this kind promptly and satisfactorily, day or night. This service fills a "long-felt want," and should meet with a prompt response from our citizens. See their advertisement elsewhere in this issue.

VISITING EASTERN MARKETS

Mr. Hurum E. Reeve, accompanied by his son Jack, started Tuesday morning on extended tour of eastern markets, expecting to be absent a month or more. He will visit St. Louis, Chicago, Cleveland, Pittsburg. Visiting these and other centers of production will give him first-hand information as to what may be expected in the various lines in which he is interested.

A SUMMONS BEYOND

Mrs. Kate Shearmur, wife of Mr. John Shearmur, passed away at her home, 1925 Gramercy St., Saturday morning, Oct. 23, after a long illness. She was laid to rest Monday afternoon, Oct. 25, in the Inglewood Cemetery. Mrs. Kate Shearmur was born in London, England, Sept. 1874. She came to this country from England in 1908. Was married to Mr. John Shearmur in 1910, and had been a resident of Torrance for nearly eight years.

She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband, Mr. John Shearmur, and a host of friends.

TENNIS AND SPELLING BEE

The Torrance Tennis Club held its regular meeting on Monday evening, Oct. 25, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rappaport. After all business had been disposed of the usual game of 500 was indulged in for a couple of hours, after which an old fashioned spelling match was held. Mrs. J. S. Lancaster may not walk away with many of the prizes for card playing, but she made the crowd look sick when it came to spelling. She won the first prize for proving herself the best speller present, and Mrs. R. R. Smith was her close second.

Mr. Von Hagen and Mrs. Harry McManus won the first prizes at 500, and Mr. Geo. Proctor and Mrs. Von Hagen won the consolation.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Smith, Monday evening, Nov. 22.

CARD PARTY

The Afternoon Card Club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. James Wise. After a delightful afternoon at cards, delicious refreshments were served.

The first prize was won by Mrs. Gourdier, the second by Mrs. Gries and the consolation by Mrs. Watson.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Arthur Hodge, in Lomita, on Thursday afternoon, Nov. 4.

CENTRAL EVANGELICAL CHURCH

E. L. Weatherwax, Pastor.

Sunday School 9 a. m.
Rev. Geo. Streit, Superintendent
Morning worship 10:45

Evening worship 7:30
Sermon by pastor

Young Peoples Alliance 6:45
Katherine Burmaster, President
Prayer meeting and Study of the Word each Wednesday 7:30 p. m.

C. W. Northrup, class leader
Choir rehearsal Friday 7:30 p. m.

Mrs. Perry Briney, director
Mr. C. H. Van Hellen at the piano

Your Homey Church welcomes you to all worship. You are no stranger—this is your church—for it is God's House.

BAPTIST CHURCH

"Emanuel, God With Us," will be the subject for the morning sermon at the hour of 11:00 o'clock. The song service preceding the evening message begins promptly at 7:30.

"Voices Across the Water."

A special message for these times will be given by the pastor at the evening service, the choir cooperating with special music suggestive of and supplementing the message.

Jesus said: "For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light," Matt. 11:30.

Beach sand pails and shovels, 15c, 20c and 35c; sand screener; animal forms for the sand pile and many other novelties to entertain the kiddies. Lunch packages 15c and 35c. Herald Stationery Shop.

White wax paper in 5c packages; also continuous roll in 10c and 18c packages. Paper and aluminum drinking cups. White crepe paper napkins in packages of 15 for 5c as long as they last. Herald Stationery Shop.

Lest We Forget!

To the man who trades in Torrance or Redondo we have nothing to say

BUT

To the man who trades outside of these towns we have THIS to say:

An Open Challenge

Return any merchandise purchased at our store within five days from the date of purchase, with evidence that you can buy elsewhere for less money, and we will very cheerfully refund the amount of your purchase plus twice the difference in price.

MONEY TALKS

and this is our Straight-from-the-Shoulder-Drive at the man who thinks that the city is the only place to shop.

THE MAN WHO KNOWS

A REAL SHIRT FROM CAMOUFLAGE TRADES AT

"THE HUB"

Redondo Beach

REMEMBER THIS!

To buy cheaper, you must buy cheaper merchandise, and this store refuses to spend money for inferior goods.