JIM DANDY SALE NOW UNDER WAY

"One of the biggest money saving foods events of the year" starts today at Jim Dandy Market's 20th anniversary sale, according to "Shorty" Modeland, manager of the local store at Crenshaw and Torrance Blvds.

The sale is in appreciation of the customer response to the market, he said. Many outstanding buys have been obtained especially for the sale, he declared.

All Jim Dandy produce is fresh, he said, and all meat sold at the market is government inspected and grade U. S. D. A. "choice and good." Also featured are nationally advertised groceries and frozen foods, as well as Sugar'N Spice bakery products.

Customers who shop at Jim Dandy during the month will save many dollars, Modeland predicted.

Takes Portrait Course

P. W. Crotty, owner of Crotty Studios here, has just returned from Winona Lake, Ind., where he received a certificate of merit for completion of an advanced portrait course at the Winona School of Photography, often designated "the postgraduate school for photographers."

Some of America's top portrait photographers served as instructors during the course which was attended by 10 photographers from nearly every state.
