Church Group To Hear Talk on Community

"A Place to Live" has been chosen by the United Council of Church Women as the theme for the May Fellowship Day tomorrow. The event will be held at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 1 p.m.

Speakers for the afternoon will be Dr. Warren Hamilton of the Torrance School District; Mrs. Yvonne Jiravez, Family Service Counselor; and Mrs. Florence Peters, Visiting Nurses Assn.

"We are convinced that the church has a responsibility in the political, economic and social movements of community life," declared Mrs. M. M. Schwab, in announcing the theme for the fellowship. Mrs. Schwab is president of the Torrance-Lomita Council.

St. Lawrence Martyr Plans Social Party

Fun and games will be the order of the day for the friends and members of St. Lawrence Martyr parish at the card party, sponsored by the Parish Council of Women, to be held at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Ave I in Redondo on Saturday at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Frank McAllister, president of the council announces that Mrs. Vincent Wiegel, Captain of Guild 14, will be general chairman of the affair and that she will be assisted by Mmes. Bernard Costella also of Guild 14, in charge of tallies and rules; Francis Hammel and James McDonald, Guild 2, decorations and equipment; Louis Fucci, Guild 18, reservations; John Collar, Guild 16, prizes and Mrs. Leonard Heron, Captain of Guild 11, refreshments.

PTA CARNIVAL NEXT SATURDAY

Rivera School PTA will stage its annual carnival at El Retiro Park Saturday May 3, from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. Mrs. Seth Warden and Mrs. Charles John are co-chairmen of this major event.

There will be booths of all kinds, with food, games and entertainment. The public is invited to attend.
