Graduation Time Near

900 Seniors Will Participate in Baccalaureate Services

Baccalaureate programs for some 900 Torrance seniors will be held Sunday afternoon on campuses.

Torrance High's baccalaureate will be conducted at 3 p.m. Sunday, while the North and South ceremonies will be held at 4 p.m.

The North High baccalaureate will be in the NHS stadium, with the Rev. Maynard Midthun, pastor of Christ the King Lutheran Church, as principal speaker.

The Rev. Clifford Tierney also will be on the program. He is pastor at the South Bay Church of God. The NHS band, led by Robert Jones, and the choir and glee club, led by Lyda Willis, also will take part.

South High's first graduating class will hold baccalaureate in the gymnasium. The Rev. William G. Schatz, Seaside Community Church, and the Rev. William Roleder, First Lutheran Church, will speak.

The Torrance High rites will be in the auditorium, with Dr. J. C. Brumfield, South Bay Baptist Church, speaking. The Rev. Gilbert Zimmerman, First Methodist Church, and the Rev. Walter Stanton, Central EUB Church, also will take part. Solos will be sung by Charlotte McComas and Carol Johnson.

All three high-school graduations will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday.

At North High, Grace Wright and Joseph G. Arnold, school-board members will hand out some 350 diplomas with Robert Morton, personnel director.

The first graduating class at South High, 325 strong, will get their diplomas from William C. Boswell and Clinton Cooke, board members, and Superintendent J. H. Hull.

Officiating at Torrance High, where 240 graduates are expected, will be Board President Walter Garrabrant and Assistant Superintendent Albert N. Posner.

240 Will Receive Diplomas in Rites at Torrance High

Diplomas will be awarded to 240 Torrance High School graduates in ceremonies at the school's athletic stadium next Thursday at 8 p.m.

School Board President Walter A. Garrabrant and Assistant Superintendent Albert N. Posner will officiate, awarding diplomas after presentation of the class by Principal Carl Ahee.

The Rev. John L. Taylor, former pastor of the First Methodist Church here and now at the Montobello Methodist Church, will give the invocation, while Roy Yanase will lead the flag salute.

Three students—Carol Mathlin, Carol Johnson, and Barbara Adams—will speak. Miss Mathlin is valedictorian.

The Senior Choir, led by Roger Axworthy, will sing, while the Tartar Band, under the baton of Frank Snyder, will provide instrumental music.

said, with considerable acerbity.

Taback stressed he has no quarrel with the Civil Service Commission's proceedings.

Although he disagrees with the finding, he said, "Never have I been impressed by such a sincere and conscientious a body. They bent over backward to be fair and patient, they asked questions, listened, and deliberated thoroughly. It was an extremely honest decision."

Taback indicated he will have an answer on the next move within a week.
