"FLAPPER" FLOPS

Have you a daughter of the "flapper" age whose ways are beyond understanding, who thinks the world was created for and around her, whom you love with all your heart but cannot comprehend?

Are you a "flapper" yourself?
Admit it. It is the best age after all, for it is the one time in your life when you have a very high opinion of yourself. And do you find it hard to educate your mother and father? Don't they seem to you a little old-fashioned, a little behind the times?

Is your best girl a "flapper"?
You may think this is the most unkindest cut of all. It isn't, for she will not only grow out of it, but while she is in it she is an adorable chatterbox who thinks herself as nice as you think her. But did you ever try to tame her? It is a perilous thing and may cost you her love if you don't do it well.

These three angles of the "flapper" question are three of the most interesting angles in present day life. All three viewpoints are presented and worked out in "Enchantment," a Cosmopolitan production for Paramount, starring Marion Davies, which will be shown at the Torrance Theatre Sunday, May 21.
In support of Miss Davies are Forrest Stanley, Tom Lewis, Edith Shayne, Arthur Rankin, Corinne Barker and other notable players.

STATE OF WASHINGTON PICNIC.

All who ever lived in the Evergreen State are called to meet under the auspices of the Washington State Society for a great picnic and reunion, all day, Saturday, May 20th, 1922, in Sycamore Grove Park. There will be a brief program opening about two o'clock, songs, short talks. Hon. Martin Krogstad, president, will preside and have charge of the day.

Bring your basket well filled.
Coffee will be served free to all who buy the silk souvenir badges.

A TRUTHFUL PRINTER

Perhaps no picture in which William S. Hart has ever appeared offers him greater opportunity for his emotional powers than does "Truthful Tulliver." A gripping and tragic love story that ends happily; a tremendous battle for morality that he fights with the newspaper he has founded; stirring gun fights and matchless riding all combine to give him a role fit for his heroic character. There are some big scenes in this picture that will send thrills up and down your spine. There are picturesque scenes of the early mining days of the West. Color, atmosphere, beautiful photography and masterly direction are all combined with a great William S. Hart characterization. At Torrance Theatre Monday, May 15.
