THE SCHOOL SITUATION

How is this for a real building thrill? "128 school houses of ten rooms each is the estimated need of Los Angeles," emphasized Mr. Elliott Craig, chairman of the Finance Committee of the Board of Education at the recent meeting of the Greater Los Angeles Improvement Council. "1285 rooms must be provided for the 45,000 children expected for this fall and the next. Over 22,000 of these suffer from lack of school houses right now. Over 23,000 will likewise be deprived of their inalienable right if the same rate of increased school enrollment maintains as it has for the past three years," he warned. Most everyone has benefited by the doubling of land values and good rentals, while the schools have been completely outgrown. Since families with children cannot live where sufficient school accommodations no longer exist, it is important that a little of the tremendous increased values be given for meeting the school crisis. On this point Mr. Craig says that the burden of the proposed bond issue will be absorbed by the increase of valuation when spread over a period of nearly forty-five years for which the cost of these permanent improvements were run. Here is the estimated basis of the building program: Average building cost class room in 1914 was approximately $3500. Today it is $8000. "With the exception of the use of $3,000,000 for purchasing building sites, the remainder of the $17,400,000 bond issue is needed for building and equipment," said the financial chairman of the board. If the most intensive building activity were started immediately after the June 6th bond election the required 128 buildings could not be completed in less than three years. It will tax to capacity many builders to rush this extensive program through at a pace that will overtake that of increased school enrollment. If he loyal citizens do not register before May 6 and assume the responsibility of reminding others the proposed school bonds will be jeopardized. The damage done by the great San Francisco earthquake to its schools would be insignificant as compared to the damage to the Los Angeles school system if the voters fail to pass these school bonds June 6. To think that the inalienable birthright of every American child to equal opportunity is now being denied over 22,000 is a situation too serious for words. What cause is more important than that of this cherished birthright? May 6 is the last day to register for the election on June 6. Will you see that at least three of your friends are reminded to register?

apartment house to start. Del Mar-Santa Fe railroad to place 15,000 acres of local property on market. Los Banos-petition filed for organization of 500,000 acre irrigation district. Oroville-Great Western Power Co. planning construction 2 big power projects on Feather river. Los Angeles merchants during 1921 furnished $3,107,414 worth of supplies for Southern Pacific passenger trains. S. P. C. recently operated a "Creole Special" from Los Angeles to New Orleans and New York. A radio outfit provided musical entertainment on the observation car and a French chef prepared typically Southern dishes for the dining car. See the Demonstration of the Garland Gas Stove in Tulp & Bauman's window in the Schmidt Block on Saturday Afternoon from 3:00 until 4:00 o'clock. Hot biscuits and jam will be served. Torrance was represented at the Hollywood Convention Wednesday when A. Gourdier and H. D. Pottinger attended the conference which was held to consider traffic conditions coming south from the San Fernando district to the beaches. Congestion over Vermont and Western avenue has become a serious one, and it is thought the solution lies in directing a part of the traffic over Highland avenue, south, and let the pleasure seekers arrive at the beaches from this route.

Torrance School Notes

The following pupils qualified for the honor roll for last quarter's scholarship: Senior Class-Virginia Watson, Sophomore Class-Clara Totten, Blanche Fix, Clara Johnson and Gwendolyn Miller. Freshmen Class-Mary Alice Davis. A 7 Class-Toshi Kiyomura, Elsie Sand, Elsie Long, Elizabeth Casper, Lucy Morford, and Maurice Fyfe. B 7 Class-Richard Von Hagen, Harry Phillips and Oscar Glover. The entire school is planning a festival for June 2 to be held on the school grounds. The celebration will begin with a parade, in which most of the pupils will participate. During the entire day the buildings will be open so that citizens of the towns may view the exhibits of school work which are to be on display. Money for the student body will be raised by the selling of cakes, candy and various other articles which the pupils will make. Ladies of the P. T. A. have most kindly offered their co-operation and assistance, and it is hoped that this may be a joy day for each and every one. The High School ball team worked up a little practice by beating the elementary team last Friday evening. The seventh grade team defeated the fifth grade team and the fifth grade was able to beat the sixth grade. The game to which the faculty has challenged the High School girls will be played on Monday afternoon. With the school bond issue before the people, the following items are of vital interest: Use of Last Bond Money. Requests have come to know about the use of the last bond money. Out of this there have been constructed: Elementary. Forty-three new large elementary buildings. Seventeen substantial additions (wings or stories) to old buildings. Several smaller structures added to existing schools. Hundreds of lots added to present sites for building and playground purposes. Ten new sites purchased. High School. One new high school (Roosevelt-Boyle Heights), under construction. Two new junior high schools under construction. Nine additional class rooms have been constructed for existing high schools. Shop facilities have been increased in several schools. One new high school site purchased.

CASTLE APARTMENT ITEMS Mrs. Barton and daughter were guests of her sister in Gardena over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Brickley returned last week end from a most delightful outing. Mrs. Lawson of Colorado was a guest last week of her brother, Mr. E. H. Allen. Mr. B. C. Hubbard entertained his brother and wife and their sister over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Mahan were week end visitors in San Diego and Tia Juana. In the high wind on Tuesday the roofs of the Ford Garage and the Castle Apartments were greatly damaged.

WAS THE EARTH INHABITED BEFORE ADAM AND EVE? This and other questions: "Was the earth made in six literal days?" "Who were the giants?" "What was the nature of the first civilization?" etc., will be considered and answered by the pastor of the First Baptist Church of Torrance in a series of sermons on the Book of Genesis, commencing Sunday evening. You are welcome. The hour is 7:30.

HARD LINES Clerk: We can't pay you the twenty-five dollars on this money order until you are identified. "That's tough. There's only one man in town who can identify me and I owe him twenty."

SUMMONS In the Justice's Court of Lomita Township, County of Los Angeles, State of California. L. J. Hunter, Justice. Simon Rappaport, Plaintiff, vs. R. E. Sampson, defendant. The people of the state of California send greetings to: R. E. Sampson, defendant. You are hereby directed to appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff in the Justice's Court of Lomita Township, Los Angeles County, State of California, and to answer before the Justice at his office in said Township, the complaint filed therein, within five days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this Summons, if served within the Township in which this action is brought; or, if served out of said Township, but within said County, within 10 days or within twenty days if served elsewhere. And you are hereby notified that unless you so appear and answer said complaint, as above required, said plaintiff will cause your default to be entered and take judgment for any money or damages demanded in the complaint, as arising upon contract, or will apply to the Court for relief demanded in the complaint, together with the costs of suit. Given under my hand this 26th day of April, 1922. L. J. HUNTER, Justice of the Peace of Lomita Township, County of Los Angeles, State of California. M-12-5t

EDUCATORS PRAISE "THE FOUR SEASONS" When "The Four Seasons" played a recent pre-release engagement at the Rialto Theatre, New York, it excited more attention from educators and children than any motion picture that was ever shown on Broadway. It is a year's biography of Nature; it enables audiences to live a year in an hour and for sheer beauty as well as instructional value it probably has never been surpassed. It is a cycle of the seasons taken under the personal direction of Raymond L. Ditmars, Curator of the New York Zoological Society, and edited under the personal supervision of Charles Urban, president of the Kineto Company of America. The story opens with the advent of spring, showing the last of the winter's snows upon the ground being washed away by the spring rains. Spring flowers and frogs appear as harbingers of the new season and birds from the southland begin their nesting. Soon there are little tadpoles, young robins open their wide mouths and the buck deep drops his antlers, so that the little fawns may not be harmed. And so it goes through the four seasons, as though one walked through the woods and mountains and met the same animals, the changing flowers and trees again and again. Little squirrels become larger and more courageous and the fawns become graceful, racing creatures. Finally comes winter, predicted by the changing formation of the clouds, and then follows the snow storm, covering the hibernating animals that had crawled back into the holes and under the rocks from which they appeared at the birth of spring. The Misses Virginia Watson, Jasmine Coker, Addie Coker and Warren Coker, elaborately costumed by Levy's Smart Shoppe, will appear in the most striking prologue yet attempted by Mr. and Mrs. McVey. Miss Erna Marie Tucker, also costumed by Levy's Smart Shoppe, is the danseuse. "The Four Seasons" will be at the Torrance Theatre Thursday and Friday, May 11 and 12.

Mr. Able is the new proprietor of the Romney Lee Meat Market in the Torrance Quality Market.
