H. D. Pottenger has purchased a new Ford Sedan, and has oversized Hendrie Tires—all around.

"Hardware" Reeve—Firecrackers.

TORRANCE NEWS

E. N. Tompkins & Son, painters and decorators, are finishing the new home of Mr. Bates on Llewellyn street.

Miss Gladys Crossett and Mrs. J. G. Gay, sisters, received sad news of the death of their brother's wife, Mrs. McKinley Crossett, who lived on the East Coast.

F. K. Francher, of Redondo Beach, dealer in fireproof, burglar proof and fool proof safes and office supplies, was in Torrance on business Wednesday.

A. L. Shannon of South Narbonne avenue, who with his mother and daughter, were driving in their Ford Wednesday morning, narrowly escaped injury when their machine was struck by a truck going east on the boulevard.

"Hardware" Reeve—Firecrackers.

OPERETTA TONIGHT

All those interested in the school will wish to be present at the High Operetta entitled, "Lost—A Comet."

Next Friday evening the Seniors will present a snappy little play. Everybody in Torrance will want to see the Seniors as they appear in this rollicking comedietta.

The school grounds are now leveled very satisfactorily, the Union Tool tractor and drag having been busy for several days.

Mrs. Thomas, formerly Miss Sherman, of the High School faculty, was given a delightful surprise luncheon at noon on Wednesday.

Miss Breckenfeldt, supervisor of primary manual arts, spent Wednesday afternoon visiting the first and second grades.

The Union Tool Company very graciously granted permits to a number of the teachers, who went through the plant on Tuesday afternoon.

On Wednesday evening the P. T. A. held a pleasant evening session at which the teachers were special guests of the mothers.

Mr. Barnett spent Wednesday in Los Angeles at a meeting of the Board of Education.

$22,000 Wrap Worn By Seena Owen In "Back Pay"

A Chinchilla wrap that cost $22,000 is used in "Back Pay," a Paramount production that will be presented at the Torrance Theatre beginning June 24.

Playing opposite Miss Owen are Matt Moore, J. Barney Sherry, Ethel Duray and Charles Craig.

The story was written by Fannie Hurst and the scenario is the work of Frances Marion.

"HIGH HEELS" HER BEST

The cute and appealing Gladys Walton never appeared to better advantage than in "High Heels," her newest Universal feature, showing at the Torrance Theatre June 19.

George Arliss appears in this feature in overalls and an old slouch hat, the garb of a mechanic in a garage.

Wanda Hawley's latest Reart picture released by Famous Players-Lasky Corporation proved a delightful offering at the Torrance Theatre June 21.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gay attended the reception given Saturday evening, when their new bank was opened.
