Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Parker, of the McKinley Inn will return this week end from a motor trip to Portland and Montague, California, where they visited with Mrs. Parker's sister.

Another evidence of faith in the future prosperity of Torrance was manifested this week by Charles Inman, manager of the Federal Grocery Co., who purchased the residence at 1744 Arlington street of W. W. Mitchell. Mr. Inman expects to gain possession of the property on August 1st, and will move his family therein shortly thereafter.

Young People's Social

The young people of the First M. E. church will hold a social on Tuesday evening, July 18, at the Dominguez Sales office. This social will be for benefit of the League, and proceeds will be used to pay delegates' expenses to the League Institute at the Pacific Palisades. There will be a good time for everybody.

Miss Talmadge At Her Best

Pretending is my profession, as it is of every actress.

In one film I pretend I am a daughter of the underworld. In another I am the smart wife of a New York banker. In "Smilin' Through" I must persuade myself I am the gay-hearted child of an Irish gentleman.

My success depends upon my ability to make these pretenses seem real not only to myself but to others.

I came to the studio the other day discouraged over a new role. I couldn't pretend it to suit myself. "It doesn't come, somehow—that character," I said to my mother. "Pretend harder," she advised. "Pretend the way you and Constance used to when you were children. Pretend with all your soul, the way you used to when you were Mary Queen of Scots in one of my old dresses and the children of the neighborhood had to pay six pins to see you—Look," she interrupted.

The young electrician's youngest daughter, aged five, was playing by herself in the dark corner of an empty set. A piece of colored cheese cloth fell from her head to the floor, trailing behind her tiny feet like a train. She strutted proudly. "Who are you pretending to be, dear?" I asked. "I'm not pretending," she said loftily. "I AM A PRINCESS." "I believe you," I admitted gravely.

Good actresses and children don't merely pretend. They actually believe.

See Smilin' Through—at the Torrance Theatre July 20, 21, 22.

Oil Leases Are Being Given

Working quietly, yet effectively, representatives of oil syndicates are steadily leasing Lomita acres, some contracts calling for only one acre, while others take in blocks.

It is said the Shell Oil Company has leased 1800 acres of the Dominguez Ranch for oil.

It will not be long until all of Southern California will be leased for oil rights.

Looks like a rich country—this.

Pay Mexico's National Debt

It is said that just as soon as E. G. Lewis has completed his subscription of $25,000,000 for the development of the Palos Verdes Estates he will at once begin operations in Old Mexico, where, it is understood, he had agreed to liquidate the national debt of that stricken country, by floating a huge land deal. Just what grant of land will be turned over to Lewis is not learned, but that such a proposition is being considered in the latest news to reach this office.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stranger spent Sunday at Brea with Mr. Stranger's parents, who recently arrived from Arizona, and will make their home in Brea.

Mr. and Mrs. Farley Johnson, of the McKinley Inn, met the Avalon boat at the harbor Thursday and greeted their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Farley W. Johnson, from South Bend, Washington. They expect to make their home in Torrance.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Kinsell, of Los Angeles, motored to Torrance Wednesday to look over the city and attend to some matters of business. Mr. Kinsell has been a property owner of Torrance for a number of years.

Herbert Black, the contractor, is building a home for Mr. and Mrs. Martin Russell on South Arlington street, and a home for Lewis Albrecht, of San Bernardino, on North Arlington; also a house for Mr. Benson on Norton avenue, Los Angeles.
