A PICTURE EVERY WOMAN SHOULD SEE
 One of the greatest supporting casts ever assembled for a single production appears with Pauline Frederick in her latest R. C. Production, "The Glory of Clementina" at the Torrance Theatre, Sunday and Monday, August 20, 21. Among the many prominent players are Louise Dresser, world-famous musical comedy and vaudeville star who is making her debut on the screen; Truly Shattuck, whose following on the screen and in musical comedy is numbered by millions; Edward Matindel, an actor of high distinction; Edward Hearn, George Cowl, Lincoln Plummer, Wilson Hummel, Baby Helen Stone, Lydia Yeamans Titus and Jean Calhoun. Based on the memorable novel "The Glory of Clementina," written by Wm. J. Locke, this most recent Pauline Frederick starring vehicle is a production of high dramatic quality, the theme of which is the rejuvenation of a woman, who is an artistic genius. She had abandoned everything in her pursuit of artistic fame. She had stifled every natural instinct within her. But the touch of a baby's hand on her cheek, the music of a baby's chat, reawakened within her the glory of womanhood and she wins enduring happiness in the end.

DRIVE CARE AWAY.

Under the pleasant skies of Torrance will be staged the annual Flesta, August 15, 19; happy, glad-some days where one may cast away the petty worries and enjoy the sights, the displays, music, and the attractions which will grace the occasion, in three big tents.

"Big Bill" Traeger, a candidate to succeed himself as Sheriff, was born in Porterville, California.

IT'S TORRANCE.

There's a town called Don't-you-worry.
 On the banks of the River Smile,
 Where the Cheer-up and Be-Happy Blossom sweetly all the while.
 Where the Never-Grumble flower Blooms beside the fragrant Try,
 And the Ne'er-Give-Up and Patience Point their faces to the sky.
 In the valley of Contentment,
 In the province of I-Will,
 You will find the lovely city,
 At the foot of No-Fret hill.
 There are thoroughfares delightful
 In this very charming town,
 And on every hand are shade trees
 Named the Very-Seldom Frown.
