LOMITA NEWS ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stone of Gramercy street, Torrance were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. Adamson of Redondo Road Thursday evening.

Mrs. Nancy Logan of Seattle, Wash., sister of Mrs. E. A. Armstrong, Lomita, arrived here last week to spend the winter in Lomita.

Domestic Science Teacher, Miss Lee was the honoree at a surprise school luncheon last week when Miss G. Griffin presented her with a beautiful birthday cake at noon time, which had been baked by Mrs. A. J. Hodge. It was Miss Lee's birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bond of Pepper street, F. Miller of Fir street and M. A. Tolson of Torrance requisitioned a steam launch in Redondo Beach last Thursday and spent the day fishing. Everyone was amply supplied with fish when they docked as their catch totaled twenty-eight large mackerel for the day's sport.

Willard and Clarence Fix, nephews of J. T. Price of Pepper street expect their father and mother soon from their home in Lawrence, Kansas. The boys motored through, two months ago, and their parents will do likewise, and when the family is united they expect to make their future home here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Carter of East Pine street had a number of guests in their home last Friday when they celebrated their wedding anniversary with a dinner party. Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. George Bayton of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Berkeley of Inglewood; Leo Berkeley of the Battleship Buffalo from San Diego; and Mrs. W. W. Carter and daughter Elanore and Louise and H. D. Carter.

NOTICE
Having sold my grocery store to J. W. Luck, who took possession Friday, November 12, 1920 all bills due me should be presented at once and paid. All bills against the Lomita Grocery should be presented to the State Bank of Lomita on or before December 3, 1920, where they will be promptly paid.

TORRANCE NEWS ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Woodard of Arlington street, journeyed to the Arcade station, Los Angeles, Friday where they met their son Clarence, who arrived from New York City.

CONTRACTOR IN NEW OFFICE
John Holm, official building contractor for the Hammerton Co-operative industries has opened an office in the post office building where he will be glad to receive all prospective home-builders for estimates on their house plans.

OPENS OFFICE
The Community Building company has opened offices in the Post Office building and have reserved a space there and equipped their office with very fine furniture. They have started out with a rush of business—more than they can easily care for.

BUILDS 5-ROOM HOUSE
Contractor John Holm has the foundation completed for a 5-room house on the Hammerton tract for A. Shriner, of the Llewellyn Iron Works. The structure is to be strictly modern, water, gas and electricity being now available on the tract.

CALLS FOR HELP
A. W. Malone, manager of the new Torrance Pharmacy, has experienced several rushes in business, and several times has had to call upon the Dolley Drug company for help to care for the trade. Carrying out the true fraternal spirit that should exist between rival business, the desired help was furnished Mr. Malone.
