DANCE ENJOYED AT LOMITA

A very likely country dance was held at the Stock feed and fuel store on Saturday night. Lots of merriment and laughter was abroad. Mr. and Mrs. Steigh were the genial host and hostess. Thomas Alexander a brother-in-law of Mrs. Steigh proved himself a veritable Charlie Chaplin and created roars of laughter by singing "Old Mother Hubbard" and other funny songs. Instead of tossing hay the boys gave Mrs. Granice a big surprise by tossing her up onto some sacks. She landed quite gracefully. Mrs. J. J. Perron, a sister of Mrs. Steigh officiated at a beautiful player piano which furnished music for dancing. Delicious refreshments were served at the Quick Lunch restaurant, consisting of lemon and grape juice, devil, marbel and walnut cakes well served with whipped cream, and coffee.

The ladies were all garbed in gingham aprons and the gentlemen in overalls of various style and designs. One man was used as a broom to sweep up the floor with and as a result wore various patterns in charcoal on his pants. Those present were: Mrs. Chiposa, Mrs. Stiegh's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander and daughter Lucille, Mr. and Mrs. Perron and son Joseph, Mr. and Mrs. Stock, all of Redondo; Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Mr. and Mrs. Criss, Mr. and Mrs. Veleis and Mr. and Mrs. Granlee of Hermosa Beach; Mrs. Anderson, and Miss Neva Anderson and Mr. Kent of El Segundo, Mr. and Mrs. Coffey and daughter Beatrice. Mr. and Mrs. Stiegh and sons Leslie and Irving and Elva and Roy Dawson.

Mrs. Notestine of Sawtelle has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Addie Martin of East Palm street.

Mr. and Mrs. Brumpton, Miss Rapson, Mrs. Rapson and Bobby Brumpton were visitors to Venice on Sunday.

A. B. Davis, of Brethren street, and Narbonne avenue, has just returned from a hunting trip up by Elizabeth Lake and Lancaster. Louie Light of Long Beach who is Mr. Davies' brother-in-law, accompanied him. They bagged rabbit, quail and doves and had Thanksgiving dinner a la camp style.
