Overall Prices

Cut Again at Lippman's

$1.48

All sizes in these Overalls—30 to 50 waist—all at the same price! If you are a big man why should you pay more?

Yes, the market took another flop, and we flop with it; We raised with it! Why shouldn't a knife cut both ways? Your dollars don't look like 30 cents any more at this store. The old iron buck is beginning to come back and look like 100 cents; just like itself in years gone by.

Best quality and makes—Carharts, Headlight, Stronghold, Can't Bust 'em, Boss of the Road, Boss, etc.—bib, waist, marine, carpenters and painters—all one price. Some change in price since we started our sale! $3.50, now $1.48—savings of two bucks on standard makes of the best overalls made. That will help buy some shoes for the kiddies.

Khaki Pants

$1.48

Same price as the Overalls! Made by the Union Manufacturing company and every pair guaranteed perfect. What's the matter with them? (Nothing but the price!) There is nearly fifty dozen in the lot. They were made for one of those classy stores where P stands for "price and pay plenty!" These Khaki Pants have sold as high as $3.50, but we're strong for the working man and charge you only $1.48

Flannel Shirts - $1.98

We received a whole truck load of new goods today, including a big shipment of flannel shirts.

$1.98—for Flannel Shirts which you have paid a 5 spot for no better. Brown only, well made, full cut.

$2.98 for Flannel Shirts—all colors, 60 per cent wool; better make and fit second to none; full cut. The same shirts you have paid $6.50 for.

$3.33 for Wool Fancy Flannel Shirts—sold regularly at $6.50. Made of mottled flannel in green and brown.

$4.48 for Officers' Army Shirts—sold regularly at $8.50; pure wool and regulation style. A Christmas gift any man would appreciate.

TORRANCE NEWS ITEMS

Harry Jones, watchman at American Re-forecing company shop, is quite ill at his home, North Arlington. Call on the sick—they appreciate your thoughtfulness.

We were pretty sure of it before—but now, we know it. A re-repeating echoing noise was heard in Torrance Tuesday afternoon, late. Home from his journey—"Hardware" Reeve savely arrived this Tuesday evening. Looking and feeling so fine and well. He couldn't keep back his old-time yell: "See Reeve," which is what we'll do, pronto.

TORRANCE HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The High School observed the Thanksgiving season with an appropriate program at the conclusion of which there was a contest in Indoor Baseball between the freshmen on one side and the upper class men in the other. The upper class men were victors this time but the freshmen say there's another time coming. In celebration of the occasion a large bon fire was made in the field and roasted wieners, buns and pickles cheered and strengthened victors and vanquished alike.

The Library of the Torrance High School was enriched by the addition of more than a hundred new volumes last week, consisting chiefly of reference books for the study of History and Literature. Each new volume is a welcome addition.

The Commercial Department is happy to find itself in new quarters, all classes now being housed in the bungalow formerly used for shop work.

The smiling countenance of Dewey Quigley was absent from our midst Monday. Was Dewey more upset than he knew by the spill his fractious Ford gave him Sunday.

The Freshman class has had another addition in the person of Homer Bale from Gardena. The more the merrier, always.

Miss Lucile Rausch, kindergarten teacher, who was absent from her desk last week, is among us again, we are glad to say, she is feeling quite herself.

CENTRAL EVANGELICAL CHURCH

Edwin L. Weatherwax, pastor. Sunday school 9:30 a. m.—Rev. Geo. Streit, superintendent.

Morning worship 10:45. Rev. Otto Spreng will preach. Communion will be observed at the morning worship. All Christians of Torrance and Community are invited to participate at Communion. This we should not neglect in our religious life.

Evening worship 7:30. Pastor will preach.

Young People's Alliance 6:45. Prayer Meeting, Wednesday 7:30 p. m. C. W. Northrup, leader. Choir Chorus, Friday evening 7:30.

Central Evangelical Church enjoyed good congregations at both morning and evening services last Sunday. Rev. Spring spoke in the morning on "Fidelity of God," and Rev. Weatherwax spoke in the evening on "A Walk With Jesus." In the morning the choir rendered very beautifully the anthem, "Oh, That Men Would Praise the Lord," and in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Van Hellen sang, "My Soul Is So Happy."

Next Sunday morning the choir will render an anthem suitable to the service. The Junior Chorus, being trained by Mr. Van Hellen, will sing "The Children's Hosanna" with Francis May Haynes as soloist at the evening worship.

The Union Thanksgiving Service held at Central Church Wednesday evening was a splendid success. The attendance was above the average. Rev. Thorp of the Baptist Church preached an excellent sermon on "Our Chief Object for Thanksgiving—Jesus Christ." Central Church Choir rendered an appropriate anthem and the congregation sang heartily, "America" in closing.

"THE LOST CHRIST"

The regular Sunday evening song service begins promptly at 7:30, following which the pastor will speak on the above item.

"This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners."—1 Timothy 1:15. A hearty welcome to all.

The Allan McKenzies of Long Beach and Edw. E. Tretry of San Pedro, were guests of the Paiges on Tuesday. Thanksgiving evening they attended the film play, "The Spirit of Youth" at Clune's Broadway, and found it to be a fine, clean story of the struggles of a friendless orphan boy who finally is hailed before that master-analyst of youthful minds, Judge Ben Lindsay of the Denver Juvenile court, whose fine sympathy and understanding have in the past weakened into urbane being the stumbling spark of honor and self respect that is in every boy.

Harry Paige and family took an early motor trip to Long Beach Sunday morning, being invited to breakfast with the Allan McKenzies in order to attend a session of the wonderful men's class of Rev. Geo. Taubman, which was celebrating a "Ladies' Day" in the Auditorium. This class on that day numbered 2950; and some of its members journeyed out from as far away as Los Angeles in order to hear the message of its inspiring teacher.
