CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAM TO BE SIX DAY EVENT

Chairman of Local Committees, W. T. Klussman Receives Notice That Dates Have Been Set

That the Chautauqua program to be given in Torrance for the coming season holds much of interest for the lecture, music and entertainment lovers is indicated by the advance information from the Ellison-White Association. The dates for Torrance have been definitely set for April 14 to 19.

The announcement that Frances Ingram, famous contralto of the Metropolitan Opera Company of scheduled for a Chautauqua appearance this year is of particular interest. This is the first Chautauqua ever made by Miss Ingram and is one of the first ever made by any of the opera stars of first magnitude. There is undoubtedly no greater American contralto than Frances Ingram and the privilege of hearing her in concert outside of the larger cities is indeed unusual. One of the assisting artists with Miss Ingram will be Lucile Collette, a notable French violinist who is making her first Pacific Coast tour this year. Miss Collette is under yearly contract with one of the country's big phonograph companies and comes West for a short time because of a release secured by the Ellison-White Association.

The great drama, "The Servant in the House," presented by the Keightley New York Players, is one of the feature attractions of the week. Probably no further farce has ever been written than "The Servant in the House." In the hands of an all-professional cast, such as is scheduled for Chautauqua, it should draw a record crowd at the assembly.

The lecture list looks unusually interesting this year. Among the well known names are those of Dr. E. L. House, noted author and psychologist, one of the really big figures on the American platform; Chief Strongheart, Indian lecture-entertainer, well known "movie" and dramatic star; E. B. Fish, editor of "Labor and Industry;" Dean Ellwood C. Perisho, formerly president of the State College of South Dakota and Educational Administrator of the A. E. F., and Dr. Robert Parker Miles, noted correspondent and invenerviewer of celebrities.

Musical features of prominence include The Liberty Belles of Boston, The Alexander Trio and the Stone-Platt-Bragers Trio, with Electra Platt, the great monologist, as a notable member. One of the biggest musical events of the week will be the coming of Mary Adel Hays' Grand Opera Singers, headed by Mary Adel Hays, the well known American coloratura soprano. It is a company composed solely of concert and operatic artists.

BIG YIELD OF FRUIT PREDICTED

H. L. Wilson of the Lomita Drive, Store, reports that he believes the Lomita Valley will show the finest crop of peaches, apples, pears and other fruits ever seen in the section this year, because every orchard has sprayed well. He sold the greatest amount of lime sulphur for treatment of the orchards yet known in Lomita and some are still spraying. If the second and third spraying at blossoming time and when the fruit is about to set is as well performed as the spraying while the trees are dormant has been, he predicts an unusually fine fruit crop.

The Masons of East Gate Chapter gave a most delightful informal dance last week at Goldberg's Dancing Academy in Los Angeles, when several local guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Denny, W. C. Von Hagen and wife, Miss Priscilla Green, Mrs. Hazel Burton and Mrs. May McKinley, and Messrs. Robert Pearson, Apple and Castillo. Arriving Los Angeles they were met by a number of Los Angeles friends of Mrs. McKinley. A most delightful evening was enjoyed.

Mrs. O. Moore of Torrance and Mrs. Walter Tappin, Sr., of Lomita, were guests at the Grand Assembly of the Rebecca's in Los Angeles Saturday.

Mrs. R. E. Mann of Kern Court is lavishly praising the Torrance "Enterprise" as last week she inserted a "LOST" ad for the return of a valuable fob, which she had lost two weeks previous. It was returned to her Sunday by T. B. Pollock, an employee of the Union Tool who had picked it up on the base-

CHRISTMAS SWEETS.

This year, as the supply of sugar is ample, we may again indulge in some of the delicious home-made candies and cakes. In homes where there is an abundant supply of maple sirup and honey (if you keep a tree and a bee) you are independent, as most dainty sweets may be made from these. Maple sirup makes the most creamy, fine flavored fondant if boiled undisturbed to the soft ball stage. Pour as usual on a marble slab or buttered platter and when cold beat to a cream and finish in the usual manner.

Pralines.

Boll one pound of dark brown sugar with just enough water to dissolve it, until it threads a fine strand from the end of a fork. Stir in one pound of pecan meats and when evenly mixed drop by spoonfuls on a marble slab or buttered platter. Flatten and round each one and, when cool, take up and pack in a cool place. They keep any length of time if kept dry and cool.

Peanut Candy.

Shell and roll with a rolling pin, one quart of peanuts. To two pounds of light brown sugar add six ounces (twelve tablespoonfuls) of butter, boll stirring constantly ten minutes, counting the time from the first bubble. Add the nuts just before turning out. Mark in squares before it gets hard.

Molasses Candy.

Take three cupfuls of molasses, one cupful of brown sugar, beat three minutes. Boll until it hardens in water, add one tablespoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of soda, and one tablespoonful of boiling water in which the soda is dissolved. Remove from the fire, pour on buttered plates and cool. Pull when cool enough to handle.

Peanut Butter Fudge.

Place two cupfuls of sugar and two-thirds of a cupful of milk in a granite sauce pan, stir until dissolved, then boll until the mixture forms a soft ball in cold water. Remove from the fire, add four tablespoonfuls of peanut butter, stir until melted then beat until creamy. Add one teaspoonful of vanilla and one-third of a cup of seedless raisins. Turn into a greased pan while it is still smooth enough to pack nicely. Cut in squares.

Orange Straws.

Weigh oranges whole and use pound for pound of sugar. Peel the oranges and cut the rind in shreds. Boll until tender, changing the water twice and beat gradually to boiling point, then boll twenty minutes with the peel. Remove from the pan and roll while hot in granulated sugar. Then place on paper in the oven to dry. Keep in a tightly covered receptacle.

A MOMENT OF AGONY

(Special Correspondent)

I happened to be at what—by the simple folk—might be termed an ultra highbrow affair the other night.

Some of the most talented and thoroughly delightful artists in the city were drifting through some of their most exclusive numbers.

Next me sat a pretty widow—though the fact that she was a widow has nothing to do with the story.

She had been listening with absorbed interest, her mobile face followed the music's moods.

Suddenly, with the most tender plaintive strain, a half minor note, thrilled by the violin, held softly by the 'cello, followed timidly by the piano; just as my heart was fair to breaking with perfect enjoyment of the utter sadness of the moment, I saw the lady's face change from sympathetic sorrow to an unholy joy. I saw a glitter of merriment in the eyes she turned to me.

I looked away. I wasn't going to show any answering gl-sam.

Later she turned to me:

"I almost disgraced myself during that heavenly music. But you know I nearly sneezed. And then came to me the thought of how all those people would have looked had I really sneezed—and a mild hysteria took hold of me. Awful, wasn't it, when sneezers are forbidden by the censors?"
