Our idea of a forward-looking man is one who can see beyond that part of the mail-order ad which reads: "Don't Send a Penny."

Ask any one in this section what was the best thing he saw while away from home and he'll quickly tell you it was a ticket back home.

The trouble with most fishermen who come in to tell us about the big one that got away is they don't leave any of the little ones to prove they're really been fishing.

Maybe the reason the snail is so slow is he doesn't have to hustle around for a place to live in.

NEW BUILDING WILL AFFORD HEADQUARTERS FOR CLUB AND SOCIETY GATHERINGS

(By CONNELL)

An adjourned meeting of the local Post of the American Legion was held Thursday evening in their club rooms at the Post Office building.

The meeting was called to order at 8 o'clock by Commander Post. The minutes were read and approved, after which a report from the finance committee was heard.

A general discussion regarding the amount of finances on hand and methods of raising more funds was held, and it was decided to refer the matter back to the finance committee with the recommendation that a general canvass be made of Torrance instead of confining it to the merchants and manufacturers.

The matter of the contemplated building was next taken up and sketches which had been drawn by Comrades Sidebotham and Gallimore were presented. A general discussion of the sketches with regards to prices and size, as well as style, ensued. Estimates were furnished by the architects, which ran from two to three thousand dollars.

Motion was made that a building committee be appointed by the Commander, this committee to decide as to the style of building deemed most advisable and which would meet the requirements not only for dancing but sports as well. This committee was given full power to decide on the building and to then refer back to the Legion at its next meeting. Motion seconded and carried.

The Commander appointed Comrades Deintinger (chairman), Post, Long, Alken and Scott on this committee.

The meeting was then adjourned until Thursday evening, June 10.

The Legion Hall will be a compliment to the city if the citizens will get behind the boys and push. Push, shove or dig, but be sure you boost.

As is well known, Torrance has no place that can be used as a convention hall or meeting place that will accommodate such gatherings. The Legion boys—the boys who did it "Over There"—are going to do it for you, if you will give a little help, just as you gave the big help when they were away.

As has been stated previously, the Legion has purchased a lot, and starting with the members themselves, have created a building fund for the erection of a building. They next went to the merchants and manufacturers and called upon them for aid. The response was wonderful. Not one man that has been approached turned any of the committee down. At the last meeting which was held Thursday of last week a report of the finance committee was heard and no one could have been so surprised as the members themselves. Six hundred and sixty dollars from the merchants and manufacturers, two hundred and twenty-five dollars from the members themselves. There's a total of eight hundred and eighty-five dollars.

It was thoroughly discussed and finally decided to make a general canvass of the city, reaching every one. To do this, slips were printed, which you are by now all familiar with, and also the envelopes. The slips have your name and the amount you wish to subscribe. The envelopes merely have the Legion seal and a few remarks if you don't care to sign your name, put your donation in an envelope and send it to the Legion.

be only a dime you will feel you have done something both for the community and yourself.

The hall will soon be under construction, and will be a place where basket ball games or card parties or meetings can be held. Torrance has a baseball team, so why not a basketball? Because there is not a place where the game can be played.

The idea of the Legion is not a selfish one. It is to give the people of Torrance a place for amusements. The auditorium will be finished before long, and that will give a place for movies, but only one place is not enough. If there is a movie one night, a basket ball game or boxing match or wrestling match the next, and later in the week a dance, things would liven up in Torrance and the neighbors will get acquainted. Get behind the boys and help finance their building.

EPISCOPAL SERVICES

LEGION BOLLERS UNDER THEM

Ex-Servicemen Promptly Halt Exploitations of Pro-German Troublemakers.

In response to the warning issued by their national commander, F. W. Galbraith, Jr., American Legion members in many parts of the country have been active in fighting against efforts of pro-Germans and other hyphenated persons to drive a wedge between America and her allies in the World war.

Twenty-five thousand patriotic citizens of New York attended the "All American Meeting for God and Country," which was held in Madison Square Garden under the auspices of the Legion, as a protest against a previous pro-German meeting, said to be for the purpose of creating sentiment against the alleged "Horrors on the Rhine."

When word was received in Philadelphia that Dr. Edmund von Mach, notorious German propagandist, was planning to hold a meeting in that city, Legion members and other patriotic citizens opposed the proposition and succeeded in blocking the scheme.

Similar action was taken by the Legion and various societies in Indianapolis. Among the organizations co-operating with the Legion was the national executive committee of the American Gymnastic union, composed of a large membership of citizens of German extraction, which insisted upon unhyphenated citizenship and scored Von Mach and George Sylvester Vliereck. On the same day the Indianapolis board of public works announced it would not permit the use of its large convention hall for the proposed Von Mach meeting.

Learning that Louisville was on the proposed itinerary of Doctor Von Mach, the Kentucky department of the Legion instructed posts to use "every lawful means practicable to stop the threatened invasion of Boche propagandists." The Kentucky Legion's bulletin also warned against the activities of Vliereck.

Legion posts have also opposed the hyphenates in Chicago, Cleveland, Omaha, Cincinnati and Milwaukee.

THREE VOICES AT ONE TIME

Minneapolis Legion Man Can Sing Tenor, Bass and Baritone Parts Simultaneously.

Wonder voices have been heralded the world over, at least since the inception of the press agent. But it was left for Joe Kaufman, a former army sergeant and an American Legion member in Minneapolis, Minn., to sing the first male trio simultaneously, carrying the parts alone with the same harmony and control of three singers.

Kaufman is a government music student.

The secret of Kaufman's unusual accomplishment has baffled voice experts as well as himself. Several years ago he discovered his ability to produce overtones which gave the sound of more than one part. He entered the MacPhail school at Minneapolis as a government student and as his voice strengthened and became deeper he developed the curious trick.

The only case remotely similar to that of Kaufman, according to his instructor in the government school, is that of a woman singer in whose voice could be distinguished one separate overtone, over which she had practically no control. The former soldier in some way has separated and controlled tenor, bass and baritone parts simultaneously.

LEGION MAN BUSY WITH B'S

Buckeye Boy Bends, Bows and Borrows Bad and Beautiful Bonus Boosting Babbie.

"An alliteration's artful aid" was not neglected when an Akron (O.) member of the American Legion spun the following bonus yarn:

"Burt began to bitterly berate the 'bull' about the bonus bill, bewailing the heightened bigotry of the belligerent birds, badly blocking the bonus by bombastic blusterings and brabble, and branding the busted bucks who bore the brunt of the battle as badgers and booty-burglars of billions in bonds, believed by big, bald business boss-beaters to belong buried in banks.

"Before our bewildered Burt boarded a boat to become a battle-scarred vet beyond the borders of our bright, beautiful, big country, he became a benedict; and, back from the battles, busted and baren of bullion, our be-lighted boy here became beautifully bored because big bibulous bunco men breathlessly built a bunch of back-hand lies to bribe him by a bunk promise of a bonus.

"But Burt isn't badly brow-beaten by the bedraggled babble of a bonus. Blythe, buoyant and bubbling, biding his time, Burt, the benedict and battle buddy, and Beulah, his bride, believe the bully and blumptious idea that a beneficent bunch of birds will be brought to believe that big battles beat the Boche and busted bucks need bread; and before beaucoup belated years pass a bonus bill to bring the bacon back to our buddy, Burt.

WHAT THRIFT IS

I am peace of mind.
I am stored up contentment.
I am freedom from worry and fear.
I am common sense applied to living.

I am discipline in youth and rest in old age.

I contribute to health, efficiency and confidence. I am the enemy of the "rainy day" dread, the foe of want.

I put people in a position to take advantage of their opportunities.

I am better than a health resort and more soothing than a needed vacation.

I mean better opportunities for your children and a position of respect in your community.

I am a builder of civilization and I sustain and preserve the best interests of a nation.

I increase the confidence of young men and enable them to mount on the ladder of success.

The Slugger

Breaking records is Babe Ruth's favorite sport. When he made his fifteenth home run of the season the other day he incidentally fractured the mark of 117 home runs by one player in the big leagues made by Cravath. It was Babe's one hundred and eighteenth uninterrupted circuit of the bases. He is now the uncontested king of long-range swatsmen and may go merrily on, hanging out a fresh record every day or two.
