The firemen met Monday evening and held a business meeting, but postponed the initiation to a later date.

Geo. Myrick of the Union Tool force returned home Saturday from a well-earned vacation trip of a week, angling in the mountain streams for the elusive trout. He reports that he had the time of his life. He says the trout were plentiful and tame they would come and eat out of your hand. As mutual evidence that he wasn't telling a proverbial fish story, he brought back with him about two hundred of the funny tribe and remembered his neighbors with a liberal supply for Sunday dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Cloyd Garner of Cota avenue left Monday in their machine for Yosemite Valley. They expect to be gone for six weeks.

SHOP LIFTERS

A visitor to the Torrance Hardware Store with "sticky" fingers made a valuable haul Monday when a string of La Tausca pearls were stealthily lifted from a plush case on the counter and tucked away out of sight. The empty case was discovered several hours later, the identity of the person with "taking ways" being a mystery.

ATTEND CONVENTION

Hurum E. Reeve, D. G. McDonald and L. A. Wesley, all of the Torrance Hardware Company, attended the California Retail Hardware Convention meeting at the City Club, Los Angeles, Wednesday evening. Hurum was in charge of the entertainment committee and pulled off a great surprise after luncheon and the business sessions were over. A large attendance was reported.

CALLED BEYOND

Charles Eugene Ackley, four months old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ackley of Andree avenue, died Sunday morning at the Children's Hospital in Los Angeles. The little one had never been very strong, but the immediate cause of death was the effects of pneumonia. The funeral was held Monday afternoon at Huntington Park, with Rev. Thorpe of the Baptist church officiating. Interment was made at Inglewood.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF TORRANCE

The building fund for the new church has reached and passed the half way mark, and promises are bright for the attaining of the objective in a reasonable time.

Baraca Service

The Baraca Class of young men have arranged for a special service for Sunday evening at the hour of 7:30. The pastor will preach the sermon, the choir and soloists will furnish the music and the young men of Torrance in general and the Baraca Class in particular, together with you, will compose the congregation.

"The Christian Family" will be the subject of the morning sermon. This is one sermon of a series on the second chapter of second Timothy. Some of the others are: "The Christian Workman," "The Christian Athlete," "The Christian Farmer." These sermons will help you.

Rev. Stanley H. Thorpe, Pastor.
