Next Thursday and Friday the Torrance theatre offers a great production when Matt Moore, Enid Bennett and Barbara La Marr appear in "Strangers of the Night." This picture was originally booked for this week, but was changed to December 13 and 14.

"The Love Piker" The Cosmopolitan production, "The Love Piker," a delightful melodrama featuring Anita Stewart, is booked for a one-day showing at the Torrance theatre Saturday, Dec. 15.

The picture is an adaptation of a story by Frank R. Adams, and has been directed by E. Mason Hopper. Included in the supporting cast are Robert Frazer, playing opposite Miss Stewart, William Norris, Carl Gerrard, Arthur Hoyt, Betty Francisco, and others. It treats of the love affair of Hope Warner, a wealthy though snobbish society girl, and Martin Van Hulslen, a self-made construction engineer to whom prosperity has come after the death of his mother and who does not have the courage to uproot his father from the old home in the tenement district of the city made dear by many fond memories.

There is much heart interest in the story, and pathos, while there is much cleverly interwoven comedy. The background of the production of twofold in that the picture is laid in both the residential section of the city and in the slums. The photography by George Barnes is worthy of praise. Laundrymen and Torrance Boosters By THE MYSTERIOUS COWBOY THE "CLEANEST" MEN IN TOWN YOUR LAUNDRY MEN TORRANCE LAUNDRY CO.

The Torrance Laundry Co., the only laundry in the entire district, has served the community well since the formation of the new partnership more than a year ago. A big home industry, this modern steam laundry has been steadfast in maintaining the most efficient service and keeping the plant's operations well abreast with the growth of the city. W. H. Rojo, an interesting and courteous type of man and a true native son, is one of the energetic forces that keeps the laundry forging ahead in public favor. He has been in this business for more than a score of years and understands the ins and outs of his profession as perfectly as the best of them. Mr. Rojo gives his attention to inside duties, while his experienced partner, G. A. Barlow, takes the outside sphere of activity. Since falling into new hands this laundry has been modernized and improved in every respect. Under the leadership of trained men it has grown steadily during the past year. Its service is not to be surpassed. The modern laundry presents a splendid example of American industrial advancement. Here one will see the most ingenious of machinery in operation—scores of workers at their respective tasks; and all running as smoothly as could be desired. Huge quantities of wash-work are received and put through a process of cleaning that is both simple and highly efficacious. There is no confusion, no turmoil at the Torrance Laundry Co.—everything is done in the right way and a mutual good will pervades the whole place. This sort of institution is one that should be justly appreciated by the community. It serves the city in a very desirable way; it has a large number of local people as its workers and its monthly payroll is not inconsiderable.
