The Sunday school meets at 9:45 promptly. This church is a regular beehive on Sunday morning. You better come out next Sabbath.

The Ladies' Aid bazaar this week was a hummer.

Keep your ear to the ground and watch the Methodist men. They have something on tap, and will be heard from soon. Maybe you'd better come out and hear about it next Sunday.

The choir meets every Friday evening, and hereafter nothing will interfere with that meeting. Every member is due this week.

The Ulmer orchestra folks of the First church, Los Angeles, are to be down for a Sunday evening service this month. Those who heard them a few weeks ago do not need an invitation to come.

Oh, yes, we expect to see all of you out next Sunday. Come right along—seats are waiting. And a more cordial bunch you never saw.

Christian Church

American Legion hall. W. T. Adams, pastor. Scott Ludlow, superintendent of Bible school.

Did you attend church services last Sunday? If not, why not? It was a beautiful Lord's Day, and in very gratitude and praise and thanksgiving everyone should have been at the house of worship. We will be looking for you next Sunday. The Lord has given us six days to labor and do all our work, but the seventh belongs to Him. The weekly observance of the Lord's Day has done much to make America what she is, the greatest nation on earth today. To forget this day would be national suicide. Ours is a friendly church, and a warm welcome awaits you.

Bible school begins at 10 a. m. Church services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

First Baptist Church of Torrance

"You know the boy; We have the gift; Santa does the rest"

When your boy gets "good"

It's a sign of Christmas!

IF HE'S as good as pie, cleans his feet on the door mat every time, and does his chores without being told—don't think he's getting ill. It's all because Christmas is coming soon. He's trying hard to deserve some longed-for gift—something extra.

IF HE'S forgetful and naughty sometimes, think over your own boyhood or girlhood and give him the benefit of the doubt. He's just a regular boy—so full of pep that he wants to be playing and on the "go" every minute.

Boys like Clothing Gifts because they last longer

THERE'S great variety here—both usual and unusual articles—ranging in price all the way from 25c to $25, many articles coming in attractive holiday boxes.

LOS ANGELES IS WATCHING WESTERN AVE.

Realtors' Magazine Calls Highway Direct Route to Harbor

That Los Angeles realtors have their eyes on Western avenue as the next through route to the harbor is evidenced by prominence given to the highway in an article for "Los Angeles Realtor," written by F. J. Buckley, chairman of the harbor committee of the Los Angeles Realty board.

Mr. Buckley declares that "Western avenue will be the direct route to San Pedro without going through Wilmington."

Cooked Food Sale
Date Is Dec. 8th

Do not forget the cooked food sale given by the Woman's club of Torrance, beginning at 10 a. m. Saturday, Dec. 8, at "Hardware" Reeve's store. The proceeds go to provide Christmas cheer for former service men and women disabled during the late war. The Campfire Girls have given their assistance, and anyone who wishes to may contribute to this worthy cause.

Those who care to donate to the Christmas collection of jams and jellies may leave their donations at the home of Mrs. R. R. Smith, 2204 Carson. One jar of jerry or preserves will not be missed from the cupboard, and it will be a real treat to some disabled war veteran.
