jure with. Famed the world over as the most fashionable gaming resort in existence, Monte Carlo is to most Americans, however, just a name. Few persons in this country, outside of the wealthy classes, have been privileged to come into actual contact with this famous old world playground. Not even in motion pictures during the last seven years have they been privileged to see Monte Carlo in anything but replica.

"Red Lights," which is coming to the Torrance theatre on Saturday, Dec. 1, has for its locale the city of Los Angeles, and Los Angeles receives its screen credit in the subtitles. Several night scenes were photographed along Broadway and Hill streets. The Ambassador hotel plays a prominent part in the background of the story, as does one of the city's office buildings and the Southern Pacific station.

In previous screen stories different sections of the city have been substituted for scenes in Paris, London, Tokio and other large cities of the globe. But Los Angeles as Los Angeles has seldom been photographed in a story. Often the most interesting things in the world appear right under our nose, but we fail to see them and seek them elsewhere—in foreign countries. It is Clarence Badger's belief that such is the case with the movies and Los Angeles.

If you want to grow hair -do this

Science proves that only 5 in every 100 need ever be bald. But thousands of men and women, too, are greatly concerned by falling hair which leads to baldness. This is positively unnecessary, for Van Esa, the new scientific liquid scalp massage, is all that is necessary to remove dandruff, stop itching scalp and grow new hair. Van Esa, through its scientifically designed applicator, goes to the roots of the hair. It cleans out the infected Sebum which causes all of the trouble. Tunes, cleanses, and nurtures the hair roots which still live and in a short time develops a growth of new, healthy hair.

Be sure to get Van Esa. We will give you a signed guarantee.

Dolley Drug Company By THE MYSTERIOUS COWBOY

REX ALL QUALITY PRECIDENT

THE TWO FAVORITES "PRESCRIBED" BY THE MEDICOS AS WELL AS THE CITIZENRY

No merchant sells more diversely born or more widely traveled merchandise than the pharmacist; and accordingly it is necessary to go into the far corners of the earth to find those things which are used in the prescribing of medicines. Some of the ingredients are found in the jungles of Africa, some come from the wilds of Asia, some from the frozen north. They are taken from the ground, the air, the trees, the plant life and from the animals of the sea and land. They are gathered by humans of all colors and are brought to market under various and rigorous climatic conditions.

Such a well regulated house as the Dolley Drug Company is a veritable emporium for the compounding of these far-flung things of medicine. The oldest drug store in the town, it has long enjoyed a splendid reputation among the local people for its efficient service and for its pleasant management.

W. C. Dolley and his son, H. H. Dolley, have been with Torrance for more than ten years. The family came originally from Indiana. After a stay of twelve years in the state of Wisconsin they removed west and first settled in Azusa.

When one steps into the Dolley Drug Company they quickly realize that they are in a typical pharmacy, not a department store. Here, strict concern is given to the thorough prescription department; the well known Rexall lines are carried; there is a large stock of drug sundries and other things usually associated with the well managed drug store. And, of course, the modern touch is there in all perfection—the soda fountain service at the Dolley Drug Company has long been a favorite place with the Torrance people.
