

GOOD BABIES ARE THE RULE IN TORRANCE

Only Six Score Less Than 85; Here Are Names

Better babies? They're all "better babies" in Torrance.

Of the 74 children scored Monday and Friday of last week, only six scored less than 85.

Eighty-two per cent is a good average, and above 90 per cent is indeed a score to be proud of.

Dwight Anderson Jr., with 97.50 per cent, and Russell Lunstrum, 97.09 per cent, head the list, and the names of those above 90 follow:

Van Ness Barnard, John R. Dalglis, Harold Campbell, John H. Cox, Aleda Franklin, Anabelle Franklin, Shirley Louise Gutfenfelder, Robert Hellon, Vivian Hemsath, Russell Hemsath, Albert Horn, Ward Johnson, Virginia Kelfer, Harold E. Kerber, John C. Knode, William H. Levier, Irma J. Lynn, Lucille Juanita Lynn, Frank T. Marsh, Alice Dean McDonald, Elsie May Meinzer, Mary Mildred Meinzer, Ornaaby Miller, Richard H. Miller, Gertrude Mowry, Ralph L. ### DOLLEY DRUG CO. EXPANDS LEASE STORE

Fine Lunch Room And Fountain For Old Levy Store

Having leased the store formerly occupied by Sam Levy, the Dolley Drug company announced Wednesday that the space will be utilized for a modern soda fountain and lunch room. An elaborate fountain will be installed and booths will be erected. An archway will be cut from the drug store into the former Levy quarters. Work will start Thursday, Harry Dolley announced. As soon as the new room is finished lunches will be served each noon. Further announcement will be made later.
