KEYSTONE NEWS

Fourth District Chamber of meeting was held at Hall, Keystone, on Thursday Oct. 11. Dinner was served on the chicken dinner that promised. One novelty of was that it was prepared by the men of Keystone of Commerce. Vice-President presided, with Thos. Secretary. There were 22 or- represented. The main passed was the oil situation along the beaches, and a resolution was adopted recommending action by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce along lines adopted by the meeting at Hermosa Beach. More than 180 attended the meeting, and it was the largest Keystone has had, and will be agreeably remembered by all present. The entertainment was exceptionally fine, and many good and entertaining talks were given. Meeting adjourned about 10:30.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Deseran attended the dinner given at the opening of the New Biltmore hotel.

The Crochet club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. B. Berry on Dolores street at 10 in the morning instead of the afternoon, and was much enjoyed by all.

L. Shiarer left last week to make his home in Mexico. We all regret to see him leave; he has been a resident of Keystone for three years. Mr. Shiarer purchased 110 acres of Gonzalez, Mexico, land. He is very enthusiastic over Mexico, and predicts a wonderful future for the country.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dimassa, at the home of Mrs. Dimassa's mother in San Pedro, a daughter, Annie.

Two new houses and garages have been built on the McShadown ranch, and were rented before they were completed.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Martin of Manchester attended the Boosters' dance and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Jennings over the week-end.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Morse of Ocean avenue, October 14, a 10-pound daughter, Desae Lila. Every one in the family is proud of the little miss, and Paul C. is passing around the cigars.

Keystone 500 club will have its monthly social Wednesday, Oct. 17, at 8 p.m., and invites all who enjoy a game to come. There will be three prizes, door prize, and consolation prize.

The third dance given by the Keystone Boosters at their hall was a very enjoyable affair and well attended. Avery's jazz orchestra furnished the music for dancing, and novelty fans were distributed to the dancers as favors. Punch was served and all had a good time till midnight.

Keystone well No. 1 is reported down more than 2700 feet and oil showings are fine.

T. Hamilton, living on Lucille and 216th street, sold two acres of land for $4000 an acre.

J. Wilson and family, from Wilmington, moved into the Minton home on Amelia street.

Mr. Lawson and family are in the Peterson place on Amelia street.

N. B. Loden and family, of Casper, Wyo., took the Spencer place on 216th street.

F. B. Cutler and family live in the new house built by J. R. Black.

J. O. Pearce is in the Black apartment. "Watch Keystone grow."

Fresno Oil company is preparing a drilling site on the corner of Wilmington road and 216th street.

Miss Ruth Wilson returned from a two weeks' stay in the mountains five miles from Newhall.

O. V. Kinder and son Vernon arrived in Keystone Saturday afternoon from Colorado Springs, where Mr. Kinder has been for his health. They are living in the Romine house on Harbor boulevard. We hope his health will continue to improve so he can remain in Keystone.

PROSPERITY—GOOD BUSINESS—IS MERELY ACCELERATED INTERCHANGE OF MONEY. MONEY SPENT AT HOME CIRCULATES HERE; MONEY SPENT ELSEWHERE CIRCULATES THERE. WITHIN A COMMUNITY THERE EXISTS A DOUBLE OBLIGATION—FIRST, THE OBLIGATION OF THE MERCHANT, THE PROFESSIONAL MAN AND THE CATERER TO OFFER HONEST MERCHANDISE OR HONEST SERVICES AT THE LOWEST PRICE CONSISTENT WITH SOUND BUSINESS PRINCIPLES; SECOND, THE OBLIGATION OF THE BUYER TO SPEND HIS MONEY WHERE HE EARNS IT, THAT THE MONEY MAY, IN CIRCULATING, GET BACK TO HIM. THIS PAGE CONTAINS THE NAMES OF BUSINESS PEOPLE WHO STAND SQUARELY BACK OF THEIR MERCHANDISE AND SO MEET THEIR OBLIGATION. LET IT BE SAID TRUTHFULLY OF THE CITY'S SHOPPERS THAT THEY ARE NO LESS LOYAL THAN THEIR MERCHANTS.

Three Veterans and a Building Trio
(BY THE MYSTERIOUS COWBOY)

You have heard of the Vonthrockwat Building Co., building contractors and designers, of Torrance. Perhaps the odd name has intrigued your imagination. It is a composite word, woven together quite uniquely to typify a genuine service in worthiness. Here is how it comes about:

Three partners, veterans all, banded together in recent times after having been drawn toward one another by a Spanish-American war session in Long Beach. W. C. Von Hagen is noted in the fore part of the odd appellation, his is the Von part of it; next the Throck belongs to that charming personality, C. T. Throckmorton, and lastly Geo. D. Watson fulfills the scheme. A clever thing, that name, and, indeed, clever are the fellows who are back of it and its meaning.

They are designers and builders of anything in the way of homes, business blocks and what nots. A bungalow or a Woolworth tower is just as easy to them; no better and more conscientious builders are to be found anywhere.

Mr. Von Hagen, an educated gentleman and a graduate of the famous Shattuck Military College, is a man of considerable worth in technical and executive lines. He served his country ably in the Spanish-American war. He was with the Torrance Window Glass Co. for seven years, and is well known in this district.

Mr. Throckmorton is from Missouri, I mean not in the skeptical sense but with regard to his nativity. He went out to the Philippines when Dewey, was there and saw active service in the military ranks. After the war he was used by our government in installing numerous lighthouses throughout the archipelago. He is an able man at his building trade.

Geo. Morton is too well known for any lengthy explanation. He came here eleven years ago for the Union Tool and has remained with them ever since. His was the third family in Torrance. The pioneer of pioneers.
