TORRANCE THEATRE PROGRAM CONTAINS GREAT FEATURES

Several minor accidents marked the filming of certain scenes for the Paramount-Cosmopolitan production, "The Go-Getter," coming to the Torrance theatre next Sunday and Monday. Seena Owen, playing the leading feminine role, was slightly bruised by the wing of the Curtiss airplane used in the production, and the leading man, T. Roy Barnes, risked his life by standing on the tracks in the path of a swiftly approaching train, jumping to safety when the engine was only a few feet away. "The Go-Getter" is an excellent picturization of the story by Peter B. Kyne, directed by E. H. Griffith. The cast is excellent.

Rose Tapley Back
After five years' absence from the screen, Rose Tapley returned in George Melford's Paramount production of "Java Head," in the role of Rhoda Ammidon. In this picture she is the mother of four charming girls. The first screen production in which Miss Tapley appeared was made in 1905. From 1905 to 1917 she was a member of the Vitagraph company, and appeared in "Vanity Fair," "Rip Van Winkle," "The Chattel," and "Wild Pat." Another of her well-known roles was Mrs. Jarr in the "Jarr Family" series.

Miss Tapley is most enthusiastic over the merits of "Java Head" as a screen production and ranks it as one of the distinctly "better pictures" toward which she and the women's clubs of the country have been bending their energies. It will be the feature at the Torrance theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday. Leatrice

Joy, Jacqueline Logan, Raymond Hatton, George Fawcett and Albert Roscoe are featured.

Some Insurance
The largest insurance ever taken out on a Ford automobile, it is said, was a policy for $10,000 taken out on one of the machines at the Paramount West Coast studio for use in scenes of "Sixty Cents an Hour," a Paramount picture starring Walter Hiers, with Jacqueline Logan featured in his support, which will be shown at the Torrance theatre Saturday, Oct. 20. Appearing early in the picture, the flivver is carried through to the last scenes, and pictured in several close shots.

Because it would be hard to duplicate the flivver, in case it was stolen or destroyed, and because it had been registered in so many scenes and would have to be duplicated in such a case, Director Joseph Henabery realized that it was of utmost importance that it be insured "to the limit." The estimated value of the Ford, which is old and has seen hard use, is about $250, just $9,750 less than the insurance it carried.

The cast chosen for "Sixty Cents an Hour" is exceptionally strong. Jacqueline Logan, who so charmingly portrayed the leading feminine role in Hiers' first picture, "Mr. Billings Spends His Dime," is featured as leading woman. Ricardo Cortez, recently discovered while dancing at Coconut Grove, will play the heavy role, his first big part under his new contract with the Paramount.

ROYAL NEIGHBOR NOTES

State Supervisor Christiana Hamel was present at the meeting of R. N. A. Camp 8908 September 20. She talked briefly but enthusiastically of the organization of a juvenile camp for Torrance. Other distinguished visitors were Captain and Mrs. G. G. Henman of Long Beach. Mr. Henman is captain of the Long Beach drill team of the Modern Woodmen of Long Beach, and came to Torrance in response to an invitation to speak in the matter of organizing a drill team. The members were favorably impressed by Mr. Henman's remarks, and hope to have a drill team soon that will reflect credit on the camp. After the business session, "509" and other games were enjoyed and refreshments were served.

Mrs. Ray, district deputy, was in Torrance Monday and, assisted by Mrs. H. N. Tolson and Mrs. M. L. Crimmings, made quite a little progress in securing new juvenile members. Both local members are zealous in the work, and spare neither time nor trouble.

At the regular business meeting held October 4 in Catholic hall, Oracle Phoebe J. Tolson reported a suc-
