

Central Evangelical Church
 Sunday at both the morning and evening services the congregation of the Central Evangelical church were given a rare treat when Rev. Belter, presiding elder of this district, occupied the pulpit.
 Outstanding numbers on the musical programs were violin solos played by W. E. Hadler at both services, and everyone will be pleased to know that Mr. Hadler has consented to play at morning and evening services next Sunday at the church.
 Sunday School Growing.—The Sunday school of the Central Evangelical church was at low tide during the summer, as regards attendance, but is rapidly growing, and will soon again reach the 150 mark. Everyone not enrolled in any other Sunday school is invited to attend, as there are classes and teachers for all.
 The pastor, Rev. T. Zeller, who has been away during the summer on account of ill health, will occupy the pulpit both morning and evening next Sunday, and the choir and newly organized orchestra, of which Mr. Hadler is director, are preparing special music for both services.
 All musical young people are invited to join the orchestra of the Central Evangelical church. Mr. Hadler will give free instruction on any instrument during practice hour. The orchestra meets every Tuesday evening at the church.
 C. E. Will Visit Hawthorne.—The Christian Endeavor society of the Central Evangelical church will attend a C. E. district rally at Hawthorne Presbyterian church Friday night. Anyone wishing to go, please be at the parsonage at 6:45 p. m. Friday evening.
 Social a Success.—The Christian Endeavor society of the Central Evangelical church enjoyed a social and business meeting at the parsonage last Friday night. The boys had charge of the entertaining and refreshments. After the usual business hour, games were played and then the boys invited the girls to the popcorn stand for refreshments, but instead of a bag of popcorn the girls were taken to the soda fountain, where tables were already laid, and told to send in their order, as "the sky was the limit." After refreshments were eaten they all returned to the parsonage and had a jolly time until a late hour.

Church of Christ, Torrance
 Meeting in tent on El Prado street. C. C. Root, evangelist.
 The meetings closed Sunday night with a total of 40 persons responding to the invitation during the campaign. These met in a get-together meeting on Tuesday night and were organized into a congregation, to be known as First Church of Christ of Torrance. A meeting place will soon be secured and a minister called to the work. Evangelist Root will preach at the regular Sunday services until arrangements are made for a minister.
 The services for Sunday, Sept. 23, will be as follows:
 10 a. m.—Bible school. Our aim is 50 in attendance. Be on time and help reach the aim.
 11 a. m.—Communion and preaching; sermon topic, "The Glorious Gospel."
 7:45 p. m.—Rousing evangelistic service. Special music. Gospel sermon on the subject, "A Prayer Meeting in Hell; or, Can We Believe in a Post-Mortem Salvation?" Illustrated by chart.
 The community is invited to any and all of these services.
First Baptist Church of Torrance
 J. Whitfield Green, pastor.
 Morning topic, "Written by Angels." In the evening, baptismal service, with 15 minutes of evangelistic singing and a short talk by pastor on "First Things First." It is very gratifying to see the strangers coming to the services. The Sunday school is getting larger every Sunday and the young people's meetings are excellent, with lots of enthusiasm. All welcome to come and enjoy a happy hour of worship.
 Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Come and bring the children.
 Morning service, 11 o'clock.
 Young people, 6:45 p. m. You are more than welcome.
 Evening song service, 7:30.
 Prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.
Methodist Church
 Last Sunday was another good day. There was a host of young people out to the morning service, and a large number made an open confession of Christ as their Saviour. Several new members were received into the church. Mr. Brillhart is doing a fine work in training these young folks, and it is inspiring to hear them sing. There was an unusually large attendance, especially of men at the men's meeting.
 Next Sunday evening Dr. Morris

TWO FLAGMEN FOR TORRANCE ARE ORDERED

When the Santa Fe railroad begins operation of its new line through Torrance flagmen will be stationed at the Carson street and Arlington avenue intersections.
 This was ordered by the state railroad commission, which granted the permit to the railroad company this week.
 All crossings through Torrance will be at the grade, according to the commission's ruling. The grades will be separated at all points where the new track will cross the Pacific Electric right of way and at the following intersections: Inglewood and Redondo road, Gould lane, Hawthorne avenue, Normandie avenue, and Main street.

Torrance-Lomita Direct Phone Line Soon, Is Report

Unofficial word has been received by the directors of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce to the effect that the Pacific Telephone company is making plans for the early institution of direct service between Torrance and San Pedro, giving Torrance and Lomita direct telephonic communication. Efforts to confirm the statement were not successful Thursday.

City Cash Market Is Purchased by Mother and Son

Mrs. Jeannette Woodburn and son, W. L. Woodburn, formerly of Carbonado, Wash., have purchased the City Cash Market and Grocery at the corner of Cabrillo and 218th street.
 This is the second visit to Torrance by W. L. Woodburn, his first visit being to look over business prospects with the view of locating here. Mrs. Woodburn will assist her son in the store.
 Mrs. Woodburn has two other children—Eileen, a daughter, who will attend high school, and a son, Wilson, of grammar school age.
 will speak on "The Brotherhood of Men." All fraternal lodge men and women and other patriotic citizens are especially invited. There will be a rousing program of music, under the leadership of Mr. Brillhart. Meeting is at 7:30 p. m. The morning service will be at 11 o'clock, and the sermon will be on "The Tragedy of Sin."
