BAPTISTS GIVE SURPRISE FOR PASTOR GREEN

Members of Church Are Welcomed by Rev. Green

A surprise party was given to pastor J. W. Green at the Baptist parsonage last Friday evening, and was what the young people would call a "howling success." Two of the church men went to do a little carpenter work on the parsonage window, in order to detain Mr. Green at home. About 8 o'clock a large party of young and old people that had assembled at Mr. Adams residence, loaded with blind packages, filed out on a would-be silent march toward the parsonage, intending to give the pastor "a pounding" that would do his soul and body good for a long time—silently they marched up to the door and rapped for admission—his honor! the host, opened the door and the mob rushed in. For a few moments his vocabulary refused to act but his human intelligence came to his relief and a more cordial welcome could not have been extended.

After all were seated and lined up around the wall, further arrangements met the needs of the hour and "all went merry as a marriage bell." The old grew young, inspired by contact with the joyous young hearts and clever witticism of the same.

A few ladies who knew just how to put on the finishing touch, slipped out of the room and soon returned with dainty refreshments of coffee and a variety of cakes, which were served liberally to the entire satisfaction of all present.

At a late hour, Mrs. Wheaton, president of the Woman's Union gave a nice little address of welcome in behalf of the church and Mr. Green responded in a most effective manner. All joined in singing, "Nearer My God to Thee," and closed with "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," which we hope will be often in the church, Sunday School and in the different societies.—Mrs. N. K. W.
